Bryce Dallas Howard salutes 'Dads' in Apple TV+ documentary Ask 100 different men what it means to be a father and you'll likely get 100 different answers. Which is something Bryce Dallas Howard found when making a documentary that begins streaming in honor of Father's Day on Apple TV+.

In "Dads," an 80-minute film that premieres Friday, June 19, the actress and filmmaker talks to regular and celebrity fathers such as Jimmy Kimmel, Conan O'Brien, Judd Apatow, Will Smith, Neil Patrick Harris and her own dad, actor/ filmmaker Ron Howard, about their experiences with child-rearing and explores how the role has changed over the years and the juggling act that it continues to be.

The stories are funny, poignant and revealing. Some, like Kimmel, are visibly moved when they talk about their own fathers while others, like Smith, recall feeling absolutely dumbstruck when baby arrived home, wondering how his brand new TV could come with a thick owner's manual but his newborn child could have none.

The tone is humorous and a lot of it comes from the comics, who Howard felt were the ideal people to describe the paternal condition

"Stand-up comedians, they are prepared," she says with a laugh. "They're looking at their lives through that lens. And so I just thought of a bunch of guys who are dads who I hoped, aspired to interview and started the process of reaching out to folks and just saying, 'Hey, I'm making a documentary

"Greatness Code" (Apple TV+ — series premiere, July 10)

Sports docs seem to be on the rise these days and this new seven-episode short-form series hopes to capitalize on that trend as it highlights the untold stories and pivotal career moments of each profiled athlete. Those featured include LeBron James of the NBA, NFL quarterback Tom Brady, soccer star Alex Morgan, world's fastest man Usain Bolt, five-time Olympic champion swimmer Katie Ledecky, surfing champ Kelly Slater and Olympic snowboarder Shaun White.

"Lost Speedways" (Peacock — series premiere, July 15)

about dads. Would you be willing to come in for an interview?'

The documentary also comes with a good bit of Howard family history, including the events surrounding the birth of Bryce in 1981, filmed by parents Ron and Cheryl. There are also stories about her grandfather Rance Howard, who died in 2017, and how he played a critical role in how young Ron's character of Opie would be portrayed on "The Andy Griffith Show."

"The interview with my grandfather was something that I did in 2013," she says, "... and that was kind of an afterthought as well where it was like, 'Oh my gosh, I interviewed Grandad. I wonder if there's anything in there.' And so I went back and rewatched his tapes and found that story."

What comes through is there is no one definition of a father or the paternal role. The dad as the traditional breadwinner while Mom stavs home with the kids is no longer the rule, replaced by fathers who are home and taking a more active role in child-rearing. Toward that end, Howard felt that those men were unfairly being maligned as layabouts who don't pull their weight and thus wanted to remove that stigma and get them a little credit.

"All this stuff that is just absolutely bananas," she says, "and totally undermines family, undermines men, undermines women and most of all the children who are growing up. So that really got me and so yeah, I made a documentary about that."

"COLUMBIA CLASSICS 4K ULTRA HD COLLECTION"

Chances are good that those who love movies own the six titles in this set already in other formats, but this gathering offers each of them in 4K Ultra HD for the first time. That's particularly big news in the cases of director David Lean's Oscar-winning epic "Lawrence of Arabia," famous for its vast panoramas as Peter O'Toole plays the title role, and Ben Kingsley in his Academy Award-honored performance in the Richard Attenborough-directed "Gandhi." Also included, collectively spanning much of the history of Columbia Pictures: James Stewart in Frank Capra's "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington"; Stanley Kubrick's "Dr. Strangelove or: How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb," with Peter Sellers in multiple roles (and Slim Pickens iconically "riding" a nuclear bomb like a bucking bronc); Tom Hanks, Geena Davis and Madonna in Penny Marshall's "no crying in baseball" tale "A League of Their Own"; and Tom Cruise as sports agent "Jerry Maguire," in which writer-director Cameron Crowe boosted Renee Zellweger to stardom. Each title includes new special features and others carried over from previous home-video editions. * (Various ratings: AS, P, V)

"IMPRACTICAL JOKERS: THE MOVIE"

The feature film based on the popular truTV series (which is headed toward its ninth season) had only a brief run in theaters before the coronavirus pandemic closed down the great majority of those outlets, but for many viewers, a smaller screen won't seem out of place for it. A more scripted structure is applied

Florida's LARGEST DMV Licensed Driving School

In Focus

Creator and host Dale Earnhardt Jr. joins cohost Matthew Dillner to tell the tales and raise awareness of race tracks that have shut down across America and the world. Often, these places were central to a community and embedded in people's lifestyles, now overtaken by nature, abandoned and forgotten. Guest racing legends, including seven-time Cup champion Richard Petty, make appearances throughout the series.

here, as the roots of the gang that would grow up to be master pranksters are traced ... with the plot then moving forward 25 years to find the fellows challenging one another to qualify to attend a Miami party given by Paula Abdul (appearing as herself here). The show's Brian Quinn, Joe Gatto, James Murray and Sal Vulcano – known collectively as The Tenderloins – also play themselves, and a certain comedy staple turns up as a restaurant patron they encounter along the way.  (PG-13: AS, N, P) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand)

"LAUREL & HARDY: THE DEFINITIVE RESTORATIONS"

Fans of one of the most popular and enduring of all comedy duos are sure to appreciate this new collection, which restores a bounty of their short subjects and two of their feature films, with most of what's seen here having been made in the 1930s. Definite highlights are "The Music Box," the Oscar-winning short that sees Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy trying to move a piano, plus the firsttime-ever-on-video "The Battle of the Century" (that "battle" being a pie fight). "Sons of the Desert" and "Way Out West" are the full-length features, and the many extras include a rare feast of Laurel and Hardy outtakes and "The Tree in a Test Tube," the one color attraction they made together that still exists. * (Not rated: V) (Also on Blu-ray)

"THE QUEEN AT WAR"

Queen Elizabeth's comments about current times have had particular poignancy as she's referenced

"The Alienist" (TNT — season premiere, July 26) The second season of this series TNT is

The second season of this series TNT is dubbing "Angel of Darkness," sees Sara (Dakota Fanning) taking on a new chapter in her life, opening her own detective agency and taking on a new case. Her investigation reunites her with Dr. Kreizler (Daniel Brühl) and New York Times reporter John Moore (Luke Evans) to find a kidnapped infant. Douglas Smith, Matthew Shear, Robert Ray Wisdom and Ted Levine also star.

her days as a youth during World War II – which are detailed in this recently televised PBS documentary, produced by England's BBC and explaining the challenges the then-princess faced in surviving one of her country's (and the globe's) most difficult periods. While nurturing a nascent romance, she addressed her countrymen via radio and served in the military herself. Friends and royal biographers are among those commenting on the monarch-to-be's existence in an era when she kept others' hope alive while dealing with threats to her own. "Downton Abbey" alum Phyllis Logan is the narrator.  (Not rated)

"UNIVERSAL HORROR COLLECTION VOL. 5"

A studio that surely has no shortage of horror movies in its history, Universal continues to mine its vault for scary oldies but goodies with this collection. There's a connecting theme to the four films assembled here, since they all make animals the subjects of experiments. An ape inherits a mobster's brain - hey, it could happen - in the Paul Lukas-starring "The Monster and the Girl" (1941); another simian is transformed into the "Captive Wild Woman" (1943), featured along with its sequel, "Jungle Woman" (1944) and both casting "Gunsmoke" staple Milburn Stone; and in "Jungle Captive" (1945), a follow-up to the last two pictures, a scientist (Otto Kruger) who's been successful with bringing animals back to life tries it on a human. Audio commentaries let film historians weigh in on the attractions. $\star \star \star$ (Not rated: AS, V)

FULL NAME: Pan Cheng-tsung BIRTH DATE: Nov. 12, 1991 BIRTHPLACE: Miaoli, Taiwan HEIGHT/WEIGHT: 5 feet 6 inches; 145 pounds FAMILY TIES: He and wife Michelle have no children TURNED PRO: 2015 PGA TOUR WINS: 1

On a Sunday afternoon of ugly golf, C.T. Pan's performance in last year's RBC Heritage was a thing of beauty.

In taking his first PGA Tour victory at the Harbour Town Golf Links in Hilton Head, S.C., the 28-year-old native of Taiwan played mostly bogey-free golf in the final round as he outlasted a field whose aggregate score was above par.

His only mistake came on the par-5 15th, when he shot an ugly six on what played as the third-easiest hole of the day. Later, however, he admitted he was lucky to get out with that score given the fact he hit four bad shots.

But from there, the University of Washington product managed to right himself, nailing an approach shot to within nine feet of the pin to bag a birdie on the 16th, then shooting par on the 17th and 18th. His 4-under 67 brought him in ahead of closest pursuers Matt Kuchar, Patrick Cantlay and Shane Lowry and gave him his first Tour victory in his 79th career start. It also stood in stark contrast to 54-hole leader Dustin Johnson's performance, when he fell apart to finish with a 77.

Pan will return to the Pete Dye-designed Harbour Town, a par-71, 7,099-yard links configuration, where he'll defend his title from a field including Kuchar, Jim Furyk, Graeme McDowell, Brandt Snedeker and Davis Love III, as the 2020 RBC Heritage airs Thursday through Sunday, June 18-21, on Golf Channel and CBS.

> HONORS AND ACHIEVEMENTS: Won two gold medals at the 2014 Asian Games; has two wins on the PGA Tour Canada and four wins as an amateur Guess Who?

I am an athlete born in Ireland on July 14, 1988. I was raised with my sisters in Dublin and made my UFC debut in 2013. I earned a knockout in my first fight. I've also set the record for the fastest championship victory.

Get cooking with Father's Day meal ideas from Food Network and Cooking Channel

With Father's Day just around the corner, families are no doubt in search of surveys the 12 tastiest bacon dishes in new dinner ideas that will enhance dear old Dad's enjoyment of his special day.

Toward that end, Food Network and Cooking Channel are veritable fonts of knowledge when it comes to dishes sure to please Papa. So turn on the flatscreen, fire up the stove or grill and get cooking on these suggestions.

Molly Yeh has a few ideas on "Girl Meets Farm" the morning of Saturday, June 20, on Food, in which she celebrates a visit from her father by preparing a spread of family favorites including chicken pot stickers with dipping sauce, scallion pancakes with maple carrot slaw and green beans with her versatile magic sesame sauce. The exotic tastes of the Far East.

A little later on Food's "The Pioneer Woman," Ree Drummond and son Todd are delivering dinner to her father and stepmother, with the menu consisting of creamy chicken cacciatore soup, parmesan herb drop biscuits and Italian salad, and for dessert, a dark chocolate cheesecake. Dad, no doubt, will love those antioxidants.

And who doesn't love bacon? Roger Mooking certainly does on Cooking's

"Man's Greatest Food," in which he America, learns everything there is to know about pigs and their parts and talks to bacon-loving chefs about their favorite recipes. Hog heaven for the swine connoisseur.

At midday on Food's "Barefoot Contessa," liquor is the word as host Ina Garten shares techniques for making red wine-braised short ribs and shows how to mix up mimosas, kir and raspberry Royale cocktails and a champagne VSOP. Because, well, Dad deserves a drink – or several – on Father's Day.

If competition series are of interest, "Guy's Grocery Games" in early afternoon on Food has an episode titled "It's a Fieri Father's Day!," in which Guy Fieri's son Hunter serves as co-host for a family dinner in the express lane as the contestants, all fathers, set out to make a guilty pleasure.

And if pasta is Dad's thing, the Thursday, June 18, edition of Cooking's "Yum and Yummer" finds host Eddie Jackson hard at work sharing a combination of savory sauces and a variety of textures to bring his own spin to this ever-evolving ancient dish.

"Movie: Knives Out"

Director Rian Johnson's ("Looper," "The Brothers Bloom") hugely entertaining 2019 comedy caper stars a game cast including Daniel Craig, Jamie Lee Curtis, Toni Collette, Chris Evans and Christopher Plummer in this tale of a detective investigating the death of the patriarch of a family of eccentrics. The well-reviewed film garnered multiple awards but surprisingly only one Oscar nod — for best screenplay.

"Regular Heroes"

At a time when the pandemic has shut down the country and killed hundreds of thousands. Amazon comes forth with this eight-episode docuseries that spotlights stories from the frontlines of the fight against COVID-19. It also salutes the contributions and personal sacrifices of individuals in cities such as New York, Los Angeles, New Orleans, Chicago and Seattle, who go above and beyond to support their communities during the crisis. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Eurocrime! The Italian Cop and Gangster Films That Ruled the '70s'

Film journalist Mike Malloy directed this 2012 documentary that delves into the violent Italian "poliziotteschi" cinematic movement of the 1970s and argues that films such as "Execution Squad," "The Violent Professionals" and "High Crime" that were mistaken as ripoffs of U.S. crime dramas were actually addressing real Italian issues like the Sicilian Mafia and red terrorism.

"Movie: Shubh Mangal Savdhan" From India comes this 2017 romantic comedy about a couple who fall in love but then the groom discovers he suffers from erectile dysfunction. Ayushmann Khurrana, Bhumi Pednekar, Seema Bhargava and Anshul Chauhan star for director R.S. Prasanna in his remake of his 2013 comedy "Kalyana Samayal Saadham."
