

Kevin Bacon lets music 'Play On' to do good in new CBS special

While he may be better known for making movies, Kevin Bacon also makes music.

Partnered melodically with sibling Michael as the Bacon Brothers, the veteran of such films as "Footloose" and "Apollo 13" combines his love of song with his philanthropy as a co-host (with Eve) and executive producer of "Play On: Celebrating the Power of Music to Make Change," a CBS concert special airing Saturday, Dec. 5. A wide-ranging lineup of artists performs from three cities to raise funds (through Bacon's SixDegrees.org initiative) to benefit WhyHunger and the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc.

"There's a yearly fundraiser in New York called Love Rocks NYC," Bacon explains of aligning with its producers for the "Play On" hour, "and the Bacon Brothers played it one year, then I went back and did some announcing for it. (Those organizers) came up with the idea of doing a television event in the early days of the coronavirus pandemic, trying to put music out there and raise money for some good causes."

Bringing it to fruition as "Play On" has been "very, very challenging," allows Bacon, "and the fact that it's coming together gives us all a great sense of satisfaction." The event's executive producers also include LL Cool J and "CBS This Morning" co-anchor (and music buff) Anthony Mason.

Bon Jovi, Maren Morris, Sheryl Crow, Yola (backed by The Highwomen), Snoop Dogg, Ziggy Marley, Andra Day, Gary Clark Jr. and Jon Batiste are among talents the special showcases at three legendary sites: New York's Apollo Theater, Los Angeles' Troubadour and Nashville's Bluebird Cafe. Bacon notes such venues "have been hurting" during the pandemic: "I've played at two of them and been to all three, so we're highlighting them as well." Bacon currently is at work on the second season of the Boston-based Showtime drama series "City on a Hill," while wife Kyra Sedgwick is on the opposite coast filming her upcoming ABC sitcom "Call Your Mother." Also with movie projects lined up as either an actor or a director, Bacon says he's glad to get back to business, though he realizes these uncertain times could put another halt to that at any point.

For the moment, though, Bacon maintains that "Play On" is "a show that I would be front-and-center for even if I had nothing to do with it. I would watch it live, I would put it on my DVR – even before this pandemic, I didn't feel there was enough live music on television. I grew up watching 'Don Kirshner's Rock Concert' and 'The Midnight Special' and, later on, 'Austin City Limits.' Here, you'll see great performances and the music will be really strong, and that's important to us."

What's Available NOW On

"Movie: The Big Ugly"

Vinnie Jones ("Snatch") stars in this 2020 actioner in the role of Neelyn, a henchman for London mob boss Harris (Malcolm McDowell, "A Clockwork Orange"), who goes to West Virginia to set up a money laundering operation. Plans change, however, when his girlfriend Fiona (Lenora Crichlow, "Fast Girls") is kidnapped and he goes on a mission of revenge. Ron Perlman also stars.

"Movie: Centigrade"

A man and his pregnant wife struggle for survival when they become trapped inside their immobilized car during a blizzard in this tense 2020 thriller from writer/director Brendan Walsh in his feature film directorial debut. Vincent Piazza ("Boardwalk Empire") and Genesis Rodriguez ("Man on a Ledge") make up the small cast.

"Movie: Christmas Crush"

Unintended consequences present themselves to a woman (Cindy Sampson, "Supernatural," "The Art of More") when her Christmas wish to have her neighbor fall in love with her comes true — only it's the wrong neighbor. Robin Dunne, Paul Constable and Chris Violette also star in this 2019 romantic comedy from Canada.

"Movie: Sputnik"

Echoes of Ridley Scott's "Alien" abound in this 2020 horror yarn from Russia about the lone survivor of a mysterious spaceship accident who returns to Earth with a dangerous creature embedded in his body. Oksana Akinshina, Fedor Bondarchuk and Pyotr Fyodorov head the cast for director Egor Abramenko in his feature film directorial debut.

"THE RENTAL"

"PERRY MASON: THE COMPLETE FIRST SEASON"

The most enduring image of novelist Erle Stanley Gardner's iconic character surely is the cunning, urbane defense attorney played by Raymond Burr in a 1957-66 television classic that remains a staple of nostalgia-driven networks, but it's a younger, play a couple among those who rent a house by the sea to get away for a while, only to be alarmed by a masked intruder and surveillance equipment that has been planted throughout the house – catching the unsuspecting visitors in some intimate moments. Things then continue to escalate in a vicious, violent way. Chadwick Boseman made his final performance in this drama about the titular iconic blues singer (Viola Davis, "How to Get Away With Murder") and the social and racial tensions between her, her band and her white managers and producers that surfaced during a recording session in 1927 Chicago. Intended as a limited series, the drama has been renewed for a second season. DVD extras: four "making-of" documentaries. * (Not rated: AS, N, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray)

"THE LORD OF THE RINGS: THE MOTION PICTURE TRILOGY"

For fans who have been waiting for director Peter Jackson's Oscar-winning adaptations of J.R.R. Tolkien novels to make their debuts in the 4K Ultra HD format, the time has come. The saga of Middleearth and its dwellers encompasses "The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring," "The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers" and "The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King" ... all of which were filmed simultaneously over a 14-month period. Among those prominent in the casts of the entire trilogy are Elijah Wood, Viggo Mortensen, Sean Bean, Dominic Monaghan, Sean Astin, Orlando Bloom, Ian McKellen and John Rhys-Davies. Other notable stars include Liv Tyler, Ian Holm, Cate Blanchett, Hugo Weaving and Andy Serkis. Also newly available in 4K Ultra HD is the related "The Hobbit: The Motion Picture Trilogy." * (PG-13: AS, P) (Also available on Blu-ray, though an "Ultimate Collectors' Edition" in that format as well as on 4K Ultra HD is slated for next summer)

When her father dies, Eliza Scanet (Kate Phillips, "Peaky Blinders") finds herself facing a difficult choice. As an unmarried woman, she faces poverty without a husband to provide for her — unless she takes on the challenge of running her late father's detective agency, which would be unthinkable for a respectable Victorian lady. Fortunately, she finds an unlikely partner (Stuart Martin) known as "The Duke" and the pair begin to tackle the crimes and mysteries of Victorian London together.

"BUGS BUNNY 80TH ANNIVERSARY COLLECTION"

What's up, Doc? Well, an eight-decade milestone for one of the most popular of all animated characters, that's what. This Blu-ray set compiles 60 theatrical short subjects spanning the 1940s to the 1990s and starring the carrot-chomping Bugs, who revels in mischief while confounding others. Chuck Jones, Bob Clampett and Tex Avery were some of the veteran cartoonists who worked on the hare's exploits, some of them spoofing other entertainment projects (as with "The Rabbit of Seville" and "Jack-Wabbit and the Beanstalk"). Among the special features are a new documentary, saluting Bugs' 80th birthday, and 10 "Looney Tunes" offerings. * (Not rated)

"GREEN EGGS AND HAM: THE COMPLETE FIRST SEASON"

A favorite of several generations, the Dr. Seuss book is the inspiration for this Daytime Emmy Award-winning Netflix series that boasts an all-star voice cast led by Michael Douglas and Adam DeVine as new acquaintances who become partners in trying to protect a creature known as the Chickeraffe. A youngster (voice of Ilana Glazer) has her own intentions for it, though her mother (Diane Keaton) would prefer to have nothing to do with it; a bounty hunter (John Turturro) and several villains (Jeffrey Wright, Jillian Bell, Eddie Izzard) have stakes in the situation, too. Keegan-Michael Key, Tracy Morgan, Daveed Diggs and Billy Eichner also are heard. Ellen DeGeneres is among the executive producers.  (Not rated)

player profile BY GEORGE DICKIE Metcalf emerges as deep threat in Seattle

In the category of emerging NFL superstars, we present for your consideration DK Metcalf.

Indeed, in their second-year wide receiver, the Seattle Seahawks have an exciting talent and a bona fide deep threat in the midst of a historic season. Pairing with Tyler Lockett to give Seattle quarterback Russell Wilson a receiving tandem designed to give opposing secondaries nightmares, the 22-yearold son of former NFL guard Terrence Metcalf is making the rest of the league sit up and take notice.

Through seven games, the Ole Miss product was among the league leaders in receiving yards with 680, to along with 36 receptions (for a yards-per-catch average of 18.9) and seven touchdowns. At this writing, the Seahawks held the best record in the NFC at 6-1 with one of the best offenses in the game.

And he and Lockett couldn't be more different. At 6 feet 4 inches and 230 pounds, Metcalf is the type of chiseled specimen who can outrun and outleap opposing defensive backs and create match-up problems. Contrast that with the 5-feet-9-inch Lockett's savvy route running and ability to make one-handed catches in traffic and you have two receivers whose abilities complement each other's and give quarterback Wilson a pair of formidable weapons.

Metcalf, Lockett, Wilson and the rest of the NFC Westleading Seahawks can be seen in action Monday, Nov. 30, when they invade the home turf of the NFC East-leading Philadelphia Eagles in a game airing on ESPN's Monday Night Football.

The holidays are like a Lifetime for Sandra Lee

If Sandra Lee isn't quite as visible as Santa Claus this season, she still may run a close second.

The lifestyle expert has a new television home for the holidays: Lifetime, where she's offering baking and decorating tips while also introducing new, seasonal movies through Christmas. One of the main challenges for the Food Network veteran is to fit her information into one-minute segments, but she's embracing it and – as a self-professed fan of Lifetime's programming – enjoying it.

"They probably are one of the most relevant, if not the most relevant, (networks) in creating holiday movies for their audience," Lee says. "They are at the forefront of being inclusive and leaning into diversity, which I think is important. We're all represented, and that's what entertainment really needs to be about, the greater collective."

Some of Lee's Lifetime segments are tied to specific films premiering under the "It's a Wonderful Lifetime" umbrella. "Kelly Rowland has her sequel 'Merry Little Christmas Wedding,' and I have something very sweet for that," Lee explains. "I actually had intended it for just general celebration, and when I thought it through, I was like, 'No, this is perfect for a wedding."

The deal between Lee and Lifetime was born last year when, she recalls, "I ran into that team at a big event in Los Angeles. (A&E Networks communications executive) Michael Feeney said to me, 'I can't believe you're standing here in front of me. Your name has just come up in the last monthand-a-half. We want you to be part of the family and do these vignettes.' "

Lee notes that in a sense, the Lifetime association marks a fresh beginning, launching her "next iteration" following the end of her romance with New York Governor Andrew Cuomo and her relocation to California.

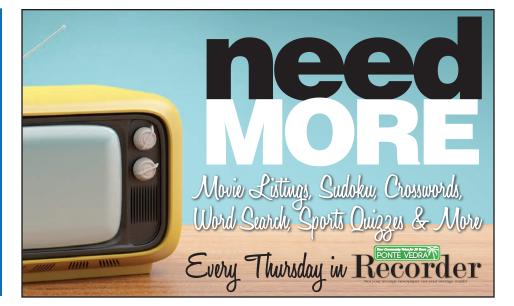

"Your first job is to keep your family healthy and safe," she reflects, "and it's been a challenge to make sure my aunt and uncle stay on this planet for as long as they can, and in as healthy a way as we can allow them in their own home ... which we promised we would do. That's why I changed my entire life, which was no easy thing to do.

"Moving into the new year," adds Lee, "I'm just looking forward to starting over, having survived breast cancer and having changed my personal life so dramatically. Obviously, I'll always do what I do, but being so specifically focused on food is not really utilizing all the talents God gave me. I'm not great at everything, but I want to go back into crafting and gardening. I look forward to rebuilding my own house, which means my career and my purpose."
