As animated family comedies set in Alaska go, Fox's "The Great North" is in a category all its own.

Premiering Sunday, Feb. 14 (following a January sneak peek), the half-hour comedy follows the adventures of the Tobin clan of the 49th State, which is headed by patriarch Beef (voice of Nick Offerman, "Parks and Recreation"), a single dad trying to keep his disparate group of kids together after his wife left him.

Probably the biggest oddball of them is daughter Judy (Jenny Slate, "Bob's Burgers"), who dreams of being an artist away from life on the family fishing boat. There is also oldest brother Wolf (Will Forte, "Last Man on Earth") and his fiancee Honeybee (Dulcé Sloan, "Chick Fight"); middle brother Ham (Paul Rust, "Love") and youngest brother Moon (Aparna Nancherla, "A Simple Favor"). And with her mother not available, Judy seeks guidance from boss Alyson (Megan Mullally, "Will & Grace") and her imaginary friend Alanis Morissette (voicing herself), who appears to her in the northern lights.

The series was created by "Bob's Burgers" writers/producers Wendy Molyneux and Lizzie Molyneux-Logelin, who originally conceived of this as a vehicle for Offerman and Slate and incorporated elements of themselves and their experiences into the characters, particularly Beef and Judy.

"We were talking a lot about our own experiences as teenage girls who maybe didn't always fit in," Wendy

In Focus

"Debris" (NBC — series premiere, March 1)

When mysterious wreckage starts falling from the sky, a secretive international agency is tasked with figuring out what it is, where it came from, and most importantly, what it can do. British agent Finola Jones (Riann Steele) and American agent Bryan Beneventi (Jona than Tucker) are partners who have very differ-ent styles. However, they have no choice but to trust each other. Every discovery is also a race against time, because shadowy outside forces want these powerful objects for their own nefarious purposes.

Molyneux explains, "and that's where we started thinking about Judy and Beef as this sort of like benevolent dad character. We thought the idea of them as a father/daughter combo would be really fun. And then we just wanted to think about an environment that we weren't currently seeing in animation and ... this idea of a little more of a kind of work-a-day dad and a more artistic daughter. And Alaska came up as an idea because Lizzie had visited there a few times and just found it kind of inspiring."

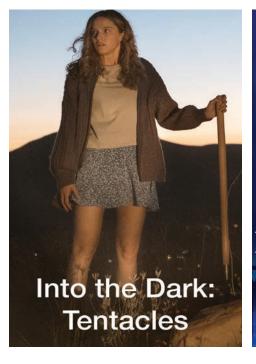

And Alaska isn't just a mere backdrop but a character, as its wildlife, topography and weather all play roles here. So do the northern lights, in the visage and voice of seven-time Grammy-winning singer/ songwriter Morissette, who serves as Judy's lodestar.

"I think we always wanted Judy to have this big, emotional, fantastical life inside of her head," Lizzie Molyneux-Logelin explains. "I think part of that for us was a feeling about when we were teenagers, of sort of feeling like ... 'Oh, I can't wait to get out into the bigger world and see all of the things,' and sort of be a part of this world that you don't experience when you're just living in your hometown as a teenager. So I think Alanis really developed out of that, of giving her somebody to connect with that is part of sort of the more big, global world."

"And thank God Alanis Morissette wanted to play Alanis Morissette ..., Wendy Molyneux adds, "because only Alanis can be Alanis."

What's Available NOW On

"Movie: Tentacles"

In honor of Valentine's Day, horror masters Blumhouse Productions comes forth with this feature length thriller about a couple (Dana Drori, "High Fidelity," and newcomer Casey Diedrick) who fall head over heels for each other, entwining their lives, but soon discover their newfound intimacy has transformed into something terrifying. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Lost Girls & Love Hotels"

From Swedish filmmaker William Olsson ("The Traveler") comes this 2020 drama that casts Alexandra Daddario ("Baywatch") as an American in Tokyo trying to put her past behind her by teaching English to flight attendants and hooking up with random men in bars. She winds up in danger, however, after falling for one of her flings, a member of the yakuza.

"Movie: Sonic the Hedgehog" Wanted in another world for his amazing powers, Sonic (voiced by Ben Schwartz) comes to Earth to hide from pursuers, then jeopardizes his peaceful life in Montana by setting off a power outage that alerts the sinister Dr. Robotnik (Jim Carrey). Sonic then finds allies in a sheriff and the lawman's wife (James Marsden, Tika Sumpter) while fleeing to San Francisco.

"Movie: Nomadland"

From writer/director Chloé Zhao ("The Rider") comes this drama movie that stars Frances McDormand ("Fargo") as a woman who travels through the American West and lives out of her van after losing everything in the Great Recession. David Straithairn, Charlene Swankie and Linda May also star in this film that became a favorite on the film fest circuit.

"HARLEY QUINN: THE COMPLETE SECOND SEASON"

Kaley Cuoco has earned raves for her return before the cameras in :"The Flight Attendant," but she's also had voice-only

"LOVECRAFT COUNTRY: THE COMPLETE FIRST SEASON"

As suggested by the title, the horror-fantasy writings of H.P. Lovecraft and the locations he used inspired this acclaimed HBO series, which merges harsh social realities of American history with imaginative terrors of a more fictional nature. The adaptation of Matt Ruff's novel which counts J.J. Abrams, Jordan Peele and showrunner Misha Green among its executive producers – casts Jonathan Majors as a man crossing America during the racially charged 1950s to locate his missing father. Jurnee Smollett and Courtney B. Vance play his companions on the journey, which proves dangerous in multiple ways at various times. Aunjanue Ellis, Jamie Chung and Tony Goldwyn also are featured.  (Not rated: AS, N, P, V) (Also on Blu-ray) work after "The Big Bang Theory" as the title character in this animated, DC Comicsinspired series. Cuoco also is an executive producer as the saga's sophomore season sees Gotham as a land unto itself, separate

"Easter Basket Challenge" (Food Network - series premiere, March 1)

Seven talented and Easter-obsessed bakers need to hippity-hop to it in order to take on culinary challenges to create egg-stra special tasty and imaginative holiday masterpieces. Watched throughout the competition by judges Jordan Andino and Claudia Sandoval, the contestants from the rest of the United States. The Injustice League takes it over, but without Harley ... who's determined to show them just how wrong they were by dismantling their new power and claiming Gotham for herself. The events also prompt Barbara Gordon's decision to become Batgirl (voiced by Briana Cuoco, Kaley's sister). Lake Bell, Alan Tudyk, Tony Hale, Jason Alexander, J,B, Smoove, Diedrich Bader, Sanaa Lathan and Alfred Molina also continue as members of the voice cast. A third season, to be shown by HBO Max, has been ordered. * (Not rated: AS, P. V)

"MASTERPIECE: THE LONG SONG"

Andrea Levy's award-winning best seller has yielded this BBC-produced drama, making its home-video debut in the same week it concludes its three-part PBS telecast. Tamara Lawrance plays a woman who grew up as a slave in Jamaica, and as she recalls many of the people who had roles in shaping her destiny, she gives particular attention to the plantation owner's daughter (Hayley Atwell) who wanted her as a personal servant. The Christmas Rebellion of 1831, an uprising of slaves, is cited as a major turning point in the central character's history. Jack will need to use a variety of ingredients including candy, jellybeans and Peeps as part of their creations. Sunny Anderson hosts.

"Demi Lovato: Dancing With the Devil" (YouTube — series premiere, March 23) The pop star opens up about "the darkest point in my life" — her near-fatal heroin overdose in 2018 and the events that led to it in this documentary series from YouTube Originals. She also discusses what she's learned about herself since then as well what her musical journey has been over the past three years.

Lowden, Sharon Duncan-Brewster, Jordan Bolger and the legendary British talent Lenny Henry also are featured. Author Levy gets posthumous credit as one of the executive producers here. * (Not rated: AS, V)

"HORIZON LINE"

Though this airborne melodrama did have a theatrical release overseas, it's getting its first major American exhibition via home video. Alexander Dreymon ("The Last Kingdom") and Allison Williams ("Get Out") play passengers aboard a Caribbean flight whose pilot (Keith David) suffers a fatal heart attack while in the air, leaving them to pilot the plane to a safe landing. To accomplish that, they must fly through a storm while receiving instructions via shortwave radio ... and each eventually must climb out of the vehicle to make repairs to stay aloft. Semi-spoiler alert: Once you think the story is over, it isn't. Even if this stretches credibility at certain points (you have to wonder when someone opens a window in mid-air and stays in one piece), it remains watchable, thanks especially to Williams. ★★★ (PG-13: AS, N, P) (Also on Blu-ray and On Demand) player profile BY GEORGE DICKIE Bowman seeks to break through at Daytona

If you're looking for a dark horse in the 2021 Daytona 500, look no further than Alex Bowman.

Indeed, as the 40-car field revs up for the Great American Race Sunday, Feb. 14, on Fox, the 27-year-old native of Tucson, Ariz., will be looking to achieve a career laurel he has been slowly building toward for the last few years.

He's finished in the NASCAR Cup postseason each of the last three years and has improved with each year, finishing 16th in 2018, 12th in 2019 and sixth last season. He's also run well in qualifying for the Cup season opener, taking the pole in 2018 and starting on the outside of the front row the past two years. And then, of course, his team, Hendrick Motorsports, has a history of producing Daytona 500 winners such as Jeff Gordon, Jimmie Johnson and Dale Earnhardt Jr.

If there's a chink in Bowman's armor, it's his record in the race itself. He's run it four times, with respectable finishes in 2018 (17th) and 2019 (11th) and his worst coming last year at 24th. But that lackluster showing could be blamed on the much-feared "Big One," a pile-up that occurred on lap 181 of the 200-lap race and collected nearly half the field, including Brad Keselowski, Martin Truex Jr., Kurt Busch, Austin Dillon and Bowman. It was also in this race that Ryan Newman was critically injured in a last-lap crash.

So Bowman will be looking for a redemption of sorts in this year's race, as he readies to do battle in a field including the above drivers plus Kevin Harvick, Joey Logano, Kyle Busch, defending Cup champ Chase Elliott and two-time defending race winner Denny Hamlin on the 2.5-mile tri-oval of Daytona International Speedway in Florida.

Starz's 'Men in Kilts' celebrates Scotland's history, food and culture

Anyone considering a visit to Scotland – or just loves the land in general – would do well to check out "Men in Kilts: A Road Trip With Sam and Graham."

Premiering Sunday, Feb. 14, on Starz, the lighthearted half-hour travelog follows pals and "Outlander" actors Sam Heughan and Graham McTavish as they journey by van throughout the country and take in the sights, experiences, people, culture, history, food and drink of the land formerly known as Caledonia.

So in the eight episodes, the duo visit sites such as Glencoe and Culloden, where great battles took place; St. Andrew's Golf Course, where the two inexperienced golfers tried their hand at teeing off at the home of golf's formidable first tee; the fishing village of Pittenweem, where some impressive looking clams, scallops and prawns are brought to shore; and Heughan's hometown of Edinburgh, where that seafood is consumed in its many restaurants.

In fact in Sunday's opener, Heughan and McTavish head to Leith, just north of Edinburgh, where they made a quick visit to an eatery called The Kitchin for some mouthwatering lobster, prawns and scallops.

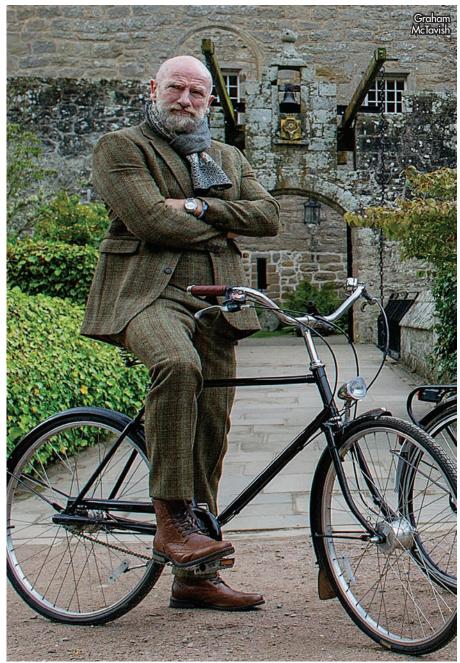

"(Owner) Tom Kitchin is a well-known character in Edinburgh and a well-known, wonderful chef," explains McTavish, who created the series with Heughan and Alex Norouzi. "And when we were thinking of places to go, we wanted to do something that really showcased Scottish food and one of the people that came up was Tom. Sam said, 'Oh, there's this amazing restaurant in Leith. I think he would be a great person to talk to,' and off we went.

"So we arrived," he continues, "and we literally just said 'Hi, hi,' we set up cameras and then Tom just walked in with this incredible food. It was just like, 'Oh, my God!' I don't think the camera does justice to how incredibly good that was. I never wanted to leave."

Naturally, it wouldn't be Scotland without reference to its national dish, haggis, a creation made from ground sheep's heart, liver and lungs, mixed with oatmeal, suet, onions and spices and cooked in a sheep's stomach. It's a dish that's better than it sounds and Heughan and McTavish make reference to it throughout the series and dig into some in a later episode.

Then of course, there is Scotland's national drink, whiskey. In the opener, the pair get a lesson in how peat is harvested and burned in the production of the spirit and visit a room where barley is stored. Along the way, the two toast their adventures and their friendship over a dram of Sassenach, Heughan's year-old whiskey brand.

"I couldn't believe he constantly had a whiskey flask secreted about his person," McTavish recalls with a laugh. "It was remarkable, absolutely remarkable. So at any moment, he would just produce it and we would share a dram and it was very funny."

"Movie: The Map of Tiny Perfect Things"

A teen (Kyle Allen) contentedly living in a time loop meets a mysterious girl (Kathryn Newton) stuck in the same loop, and together they set out to find all the tiny things that make that day perfect. Josh Hamilton and Al Madrigal also star in director Ian Samuels' ("Sierra Burgess Is a Loser") 2020 romantic fantasy.

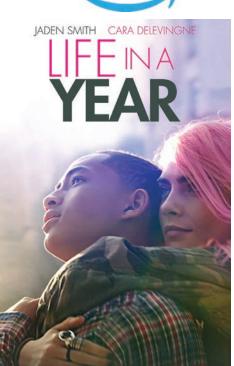

"Clifford the Big Red Dog" Big doings are ahead for Clifford, Emily Elizabeth and the denizens of Birdwell Island in this new round of episodes, as they gather to celebrate Clifford's birthday, Valentine's Day and Halloween. They also mark the arrival of the Flores' new baby and help the town through a snow day while sharing life's special moments and learning the importance of family and friends. (ORIĜINAL)

"Movie: The Warrior Queen of Jhansi"

The 1857 Indian Rebellion against the British East India Company serves as the backdrop for Swati Bhise's 2019 period drama, which chronicles the saga of Rani Lakshmibai (Devika Bhise), the Rani of Jhansi. A feminist icon in her country and a fearless freedom fighter, as a 24-year-old general, she led her people against the British Empire.

"Movie: Life in a Year"

After learning his girlfriend (Cara Delevingne, "Carnival Row") is dying, a teen (Jaden Smith, "The Pursuit of Happyness") sets out to give her a life's worth of experiences in the year she has left in this 2020 tearjerker from director Mitja Okorn ("Planeta Singli"). Nia Long, Cuba Gooding Jr. and RZA are also in the solid cast.
