

'Debris' signals more tough times for the world in NBC sci-fi series

The next time you see something fall from the sky, it may mean more than you think. And not in a good way.

That's how "Fringe" and "Almost Human" veteran J.H. Wyman is positioning it, anyway. He's now the creator and executive producer of "Debris," an NBC sci-fi series that premieres Monday, March 1, making fallen pieces of an alien spaceship threats to physics ... thus causing people to start falling, too. Two dissimilar agents, played by Jonathan Tucker ("Westworld," 'City on a Hill") and Riann Steele ("The Magicians," "Lovesick"), are dispatched to collaborate and gather the debris though how it will be handled afterward, and to what end, is figuratively up in the air. Two-time Tony Award winner Norbert Leo Butz also stars.

"We're going to put something out there that's going to make a difference to people and (make them) say, 'There's something different about the show,' Wyman maintains. "It speaks to things that I think aren't really out there right now. There's a hope and a concept that maybe there's something out there that we don't know, and that is something that I think is intriguing enough. And all I can ask for is people to sample it and kind of understand it."

Actor Tucker explains that "week to week, a new piece of debris is discovered. And it allows us to discover the unique capabilities that this debris has to offer, how it affects people, how it affects the world, and ultimately how it affects (the characters) and their own relationship. It's fun for us as actors, for sure, but I think it will be fun for audiences to see ... and it speaks to the kind of cablelevel scifi that we've become accustomed to. You can have a case of the week, but you can also have meaningful character development and mythological rollout over the course of this first season, at least.'

Fellow "Debris" star Steele adds that "there is a realism alongside" the fantasy of the show: "You're meeting two characters who are very flawed and very broken, and we get to see them along the season kind of understand each other through the debris.'

However "Debris" is received generally, Wyman believes it is meeting his own criteria for what he wanted to do with it. "To me, the best sci-fi is more about the human condition that it talks about," he reasons. "There's a lot of people out there that do the 'little green men' thing better than me. I'm more (about), with the sci-fi genre, what does it look like when there are questions asked that really shine a light on the human condition? I just always find that fascinating."

What's Available NOW On

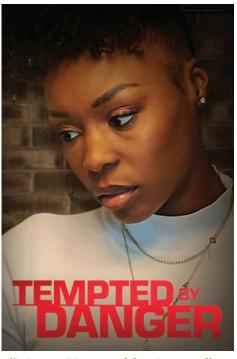

"North Korea: Inside the Mind of a Dictator"

From National Geographic and 72 Films comes this two-hour documentary that examines the decision facing North Korean dictator Kim Jung Un: to either maintain his brutal family legacy or become a legitimate leader, which could ultimately mean the end of the Kim family dynasty. Never-beforeseen interviews shed new light on the mindset of the Asian strongman.

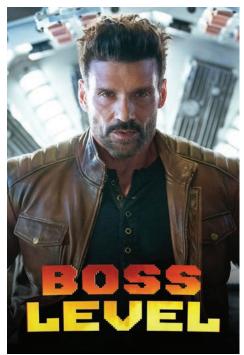

"Movie: Logan Lucky"

Steven Soderbergh directed this 2017 comedy crime caper that reunites him with his former "Magic Mike" leading man Channing Tatum in the story of three siblings who plan to pull off a heist during a NASCAR race. Adam Driver, Farrah McKenzie and Riley Keough (who worked with Soderbergh on "The Girlfriend Experience") also star.

"Movie: Tempted by Danger" Married and expecting, Angela wishes her lawyer sister Nicole could find time for a better work-life balance so when Angela hires Michael, a new executive, she also sets him up with Nicole. The relationship seems to be going great until Nicole starts picking up unsettling signals that Michael may be troubled. Keshia Knight-Pulliam and Gabrielle Graham star in this 2020 thriller.

"Movie: Boss Level"

Joe Carnahan ("Narc") directed this actioner that stars Frank Grillo as a former special forces agent trapped in a time loop that keeps repeating the day of his murder. He uncovers clues about a secret government project that could unlock the mystery behind his death and goes in search of the powerful colonel (Mel Gibson) who heads the program. (ORIGINAL)

"City on a Hill" (Showtime — season premiere, March 28)

Kevin Bacon and Aldis Hodge return as, respectively, FBI agent Jackie Rohr and assistant district attorney Decourcy Ward as this critically well-received drama returns for a second season. These eight new episodes revolve around a federal housing project in the Roxbury neighborhood of Boston, an area rife with drug violence and an understandable distrust in local law enforcement. Lauren E. Banks, Mark O'Brien and Jill Hennessy co-star.

"Movie: Caught by a Wave" A summer fling under the Sicilian sun turns into heartbreak for two teens (Vincenzo Amato, Donatella Finocchiaro), who are forced to grow up too quickly in this romantic drama from Italy and first-time feature filmmaker Massimiliano Camaiti. Olivia Castanho, Corrado Invernizzi and Elvira Camarrone are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Crazy About Her" From Spain comes this comedy movie about Adri (Álvaro Cervantes, "Hanna"), who after a wild night with Carla (Susana Abaitua, "Compulsion," "Journey to a Mother's Room") voluntary turns himself in to the psychiatric facility where she resides. Luis Zahera, Paula Malia and Clara Segura also star for director Dani de la Orden ("The Wedding Unplanner"). (ORIGINAL)

"Ginny & Georgia"

Antonia Gentry ("Candy Jar") and Brianne Howey ("The Passage," "Dollface") have the title roles in this comedy drama series about a mother and daughter who move to a new town to make a fresh start but secrets from Mom's past jeopardize the endeavor. Diesel Torraca, Jennifer Robertson and Felix Mallard are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Moxie"

A shy 16-year-old (Hadley Robinson) unexpectedly sparks a movement when she anonymously publishes an underground magazine called Moxie to expose bias and wrongdoing in her high school in this comedy drama from director and "Saturday Night Live" alum Amy Poehler. Lauren Tsai, Patrick Schwarzenegger, Ike Barinholtz, Marcia Gay Harden and Poehler also star. (ORIGINAL) player profile Clippers look to Leonard to raise game in teammate's absence

Kawhi Leonard's role as the focal point of the Los Angeles Clippers' offense has never been in question. But now with teammate Paul George's absence, the time has come for him to play like the MVP he has been in two NBA Finals.

Indeed, with George out indefinitely with bone edema - a condition that has no set timetable for recovery - the scoring load has fallen squarely on Leonard's shoulders. And as of early February he had responded only mildly.

In three games without his running mate, Leonard averaged 26 points, 8 rebounds, 5.7 assists and 1 steal per game with just 1.7 turnovers. That's not far off his seasonto-date averages of 26 points, 5.8 boards, 5.1 assists and 1.8 turnovers.

It's also worth noting that the Clips lost two of those games - to the Boston Celtics and Cleveland Cavaliers, both teams with unimpressive records - which dropped them out of first place in the Pacific Division behind the Los Angeles Lakers and into the third seed in the Western Conference. It goes without saying, then, that if the Clips are to survive this period of unknown duration without their No.

2 scoring option, they'll need their No. 1 to step up and take control as he did for the San Antonio Spurs in 2014 and the Toronto Raptors in 2019 - both championship teams.

Leonard and the Clippers can be seen in action Tuesday, March 2, when they pay a visit to the Celtics in a game airing on TNT.

Food Network's 'Easter Basket Challenge' BY GEORGE DICKIE pushes bakers to their creative limits

Sunny Anderson is all about Easter. She loves the holiday itself, the food and most importantly, the desserts. Which is why her hosting gig on Food Network's "Easter Basket Challenge" was such a natural fit for her.

"I've never really done like a holiday competition show like this. I did a pie show but I love Easter and I love the food around Easter. I'm planning my Easter menu right now and scallop potatoes is on it," she says with a laugh. "So I'm looking forward to it."

Premiering Monday, March 1, the fiveepisode, hourlong series challenges seven professional and home bakers with creating tasty and imaginative holiday masterpieces to be evaluated by judges Jordan Andino ("Junior Chef Showdown") and Claudia Sandoval ("Masterchef Latino"). The contestants must interpret the outrageous Easter themes presented to them and turn them into delicious holiday confections and elaborate edible displays.

In the end, the winning baker receives a grand prize of a golden egg filled with $25,000.

For her part, Anderson ("The Kitchen") came away impressed by the creativity on display here, which involved more than just baking.

"(The designs) are super elaborate," she says. "There's PVC and wood frames – and it's not just cakes. These bakers are also challenged with molding chocolate and spinning sugar and doing some really artful things that are not typical in competitions. And then we also have some height requirements and dimension requirements that we give in some of the challenges where we really want people to do something huge. And I think for the finale, we had them make like a three-foot-tall Easter egg. ... You've got to put something in the Easter egg that's hidden for the judges to find. And obviously that adds another level of fun and flair."

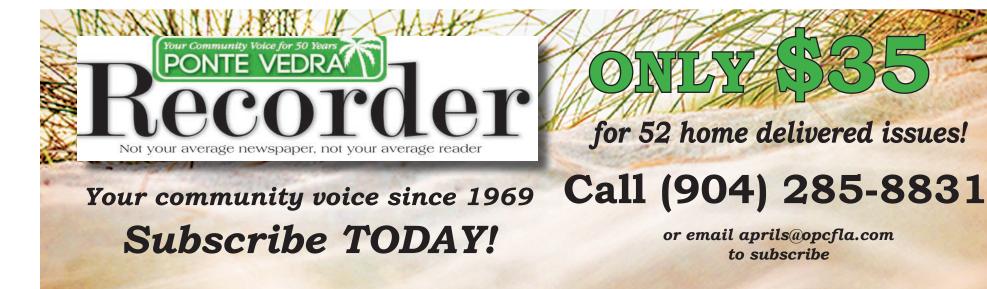

But with the fun, there is also pressure. Because of the complicated nature of the designs, the bakers have hours instead of minutes to complete their creations, which didn't always mitigate the stress level. In fact, Anderson recalls one theme that had the contestants particularly on edge.

"At one point, we asked them to do something that would be worthy of an art museum," she says. "So when you think about that, you've got to temper chocolate, which takes forever. If you get it wrong, you've got to start over. You've got to mold things. You know, stack up cakes and carve them. The fondant alone is just a headache. You know, many of them almost didn't finish with the time allotted. It was amazing.

"There were photo finishes pretty much every time," she continues, "and a lot of them at the end ... wished that they had just a few more minutes. I think everyone says that when they're competing because there's a list of things you want to get done and it doesn't always happen."

"Movie: What Men Want" Taraji P. Henson shines in Adam Shankman's very loose 2019 remake of the 2000 Mel Gibson-Helen Hunt comedy "What Women Want," with some gender-flipping. The actress stars as Ali Davis, a successful sports agent who nonetheless struggles to advance in her male-dominated profession. After drinking a powerful concoction she gets from a shaman, Ali gains the ability to hear men's inner thoughts.

"Movie: Brittany Runs a Marathon"

A hard-partying New Yorker (Jillian Bell, "Workaholics") gets a wake-up call, prompting her to ditch her unhealthy lifestyle, get in shape and start running, a path that leads her to compete in the New York City Marathon in this comedy movie from first-time director Paul Downs Colaizzo. Jennifer Dundas, Patch Darragh and Michaela Watkins also star. (ORIGINAL)

"Godzilla vs. Kong" (HBO Max — movie

Premiere, March 31) Also premiering in theaters on this date, this sci-fi actioner follows the epic battle between the giant prehistoric sea monster and the fabled simian with humanity, of course, caught in the middle. Alexander Skarsgard, Millie Bobby Brown, Rebecca Hall, Brian Tyree Henry and Eiza Gonzalez head a talented cast for director Adam Wingard ("Blair Witch").

"Tell Me Your Secrets"

From creator/writer Harriet Warner ("Call the Midwife," "Footballers' Wives") comes this 10-episode drama series that stars Lily Rabe, Hamish Linklater and Amy Brenneman as people each with troubling histories who are pushed to the edge as the truth about their pasts and motives is revealed. Stella Baker, Richard Thomas and Enrique Murciano also star. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Coming 2 America" This sequel to the 1983 comedy "Coming to America" returns to the African kingdom of Zamunda, where Prince Akeem (Eddie Murphy) learns he has a long-lost son in the United States and decides to return there to build a relationship with him. Arsenio Hall, Shari Headley and James Earl Jones also reprise their roles from the original film. (ORIGINAL)

"Raya and the Last Dragon" (March 5)

Also opening in theaters, this animated actioner takes viewers to the fantasy world of Kumandra, where a lone warrior named Raya must find the legendary last dragon to stop an evil force that has returned after 500 years to threaten her homeworld. Kelly Marie Tran voices Raya in a vocal cast that also includes Alan Tudyk, Sandra Oh and Awkwafina. (ORIGINAL)

"Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella" (Available now) Singer-actress Brandy and Paolo Montalban head a stellar cast in this well-received 1997 Disney revival of the only musical Rodgers and Hammerstein created expressly for television. Victor Garber ("Family Law") and Whoopi Goldberg co-star as the king and queen, with Bernadette Peters as Cinderella's stepmother and Whitney Houston as the fairy godmother.

"Mickey Go Local" (Available now)

As the title might suggest, Mickey Mouse is front and center of this series of animated shorts that originally aired on Disney Channel Asia in 2019 and follows him, Minnie, Donald and the gang as they explore Singapore and take in its food, fashion and iconic modern architecture.

"Marvel Battleworld: Mystery of the Thanostones" (Available now)

Promoting a minature figure toyline, the series of animated shorts catches up with Iron Man, Captain Marvel, Spider-Ham, Groot, and Throg as they try to figure out what the Mad Titan Thanos wants and why they've been brought to a strange, new world. (ORIGINAL)
