'Rebel' upbraids misbehaving corporations in ABC drama series

Annie "Rebel" Bello is the kind of woman you want on your side in a street fight.

As played by Katey Sagal ("The Conners") in the ABC drama series 'Rebel," premiering Thursday, April 8, she's a brilliant blue-collar legal advocate who drives a pickup truck and fights passionately for causes she believes in. She'll also do almost anything to make sure she gets those she helps their due, such as confronting CEOs of irresponsible corporations at stockholder meetings.

While husband Grady (John Corbett, "Northern Exposure") admires her zeal and daughter Cassidy (Lex Scott Davis, "Training Day") has inherited it, her tendencies can prove exasperating for associates such as Julian Cruz (Andy Garcia, "City Island," in his first role as a series regular), the powerful attorney with whom Rebel consults, and ex-husband Benji Ray (James Lesure, "Las Vegas"), a corporate lawyer and natural adversary for her.

The series was created and executive produced by Krista Vernoff ("Grey's Anatomy," "Station 19") and is based on the life of activist Erin Brockovich, who is also an executive producer here.

Sagal, whose long resume runs the gamut from comedy ("Married ... With Children," "8 Simple Rules") to drama ("Sons of Anarchy," "Boston Legal"), was attracted to the series for its blend of those elements and for the bold, don't-take-no-for-an-answer nature of Rebel, whose lack of a law degree the actress says gives her character license to pull outrageous stunts.

"I think what I love so much about Rebel is she can cross a few lines," Sagal says. "She can go outside the box. She can push where maybe I guess it wouldn't be within legal bounds. I mean, not that she's illegal, but she just pushes a little bit further.

"And I think that she takes the best," she continues. "To me it feels like she gathers knowledge from everywhere. I mean, she just takes it all. And then her primary purpose is to do the right thing, is to fight for the right thing. And I think sometimes legal mumbo jumbo can make that a little bit confusing when it's actually a very straight line in terms of what's

In preparing for the role, Sagal decided to meet Brockovich for lunch, not so much to talk about the nuts and bolts of advocacy but to pick up

"I got it just sitting and hanging out with her," Sagal says, "because clearly the passion and the fire comes even over lunch.'

Brockovich, whose career as an environmental activist was brought to life by Julia Roberts in director Stephen Soderbergh's 2000 legal drama "Erin Brockovich," thinks her doppelganger got the performance right.

"It's her energy. It's her presence ... ," Brockovich says. "It's like, 'I'm a badass.' She's it. She gets it. So it's just there."

The original first-order Fresnel lens in the St. Augustine Lighthouse was manufactured in Paris, France. In 1986, a vandal shot the lens at the top of the tower, damaging 19 of its 370 prisms. Then President of the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, Virginia Whetstone, spearheaded a first-of-its-kind restoration project with Dan Spinella of Disney Corporation. Taking advantage of breakthroughs in laser technology, Dan measured the prisms and created the means to fabricate a new bullseye panel and 18 other prisms.

Two Coast Guardsmen, Joseph Cocking, and Nicholas Johnston, who still service the Fresnel lens today, took out the damaged parts, replaced them, and aligned the beam correctly. Initially thought of as an impossible task for a fledgling non-profit, a team effort ensured the Fresnel lens restoration, which served as a pilot project that led

McIlroy seeks to break through finally – at Augusta National

Hard as it may be to believe, Rory McIlroy has never won a Masters Tournament.

Indeed, while the 31-year-old native of Northern Ireland has four major championships and a slew of other accolates to his credit, the coveted green jacket that goes to the winner of the golf year's traditional first major is not among them. And he's ready to complete that career grand slam.

He's finished in the top 10 in six of his last seven outings at Augusta National, with career bests of a fourth-place finish in 2015 and ties for fifth in 2018 and last year. True, he also had a disheartening final round collapse in 2011, which relegated him to 15th after building a four-stroke lead after 56 holes. But that shouldn't take away from his more recent stellar play on the florid Georgia course.

History says the first round is McIlroy's undoing at Augusta National and that certainly held true last year as he opened the tournament with a 3-over 75. He then identified a flaw in his swing and came back to shoot a 66 and 67 in the second and third. But by the time the fourth round started, it was too late. His 69 on the last 18 holes was nowhere near enough to overcome a record-setting performance by Dustin Johnson, who shot a 20-under 268 over 72 holes to win by five strokes, nine ahead of McIlroy.

So it seems if McIlroy can avoid the first-round yips, a title at Augusta can be his.

He also hopes the number 13 will prove lucky this year as he goes against the PGA's top players in his 13th career start in the Masters Tournament, which airs Thursday through Sunday, April 8-11, on ESPN and CBS.

Sipping with the stars: Highly rated, celebrity-branded wines

If you're looking for a nice syrah to pair with dinner or just a light pinot grigio to enjoy with an intimate gathering, we have a few famous friends who can offer recommendations

Indeed, these are celebrities who have turned their love of wine into a business and putting their names and/or money where their incredibly discriminating palates are. And while some are better than others, many are worth your time and hard-earned cash. The following are a few to consider.

Jim Nantz, who this week calls the Masters Tournament for CBS, has been making wine with his partner Peter Deutsch since 2009 and the result is The Calling (www.thecallingwine.com) of Sonoma Valley, Calif., which produces high-quality cabernet, chardonnay and pinot noir with prices ranging from $32 to $70. In fact, its 2014 Fox Den Vineyard pinot was a favorite of Wine Enthusiast, which rated it a 91.

The Francis Ford Coppola Winery (www.francisfordcoppolawinery.com) of Napa Valley, Calif., has developed a loyal following over the years with its myriad varieties of wines and its Sofia sub-brand that has also made inroads. Some have movie themes (the Apocalypse Now red blend; the Director's Cut line) while others are named for family members (the Eleanor red after his wife; Sofia for his fellow filmmaker daughter) and prices range from $12 to $120. Stars include the 2017 Sofia Blanc de Blancs and a 2014 Black Label Claret Diamond cabernet sauvignon, which Wine Enthusiast gave a 90.

Washington State native Kyle MacLachlan also has a passion for the grape as owner and vintner of Pursued by Bear wines (www. pursuedbybearwine.com) of Columbia Valley, Wash., which produces small-lot reds and a rosé of which they're particularly proud. Its cabernet sauvignon has gotten much attention, with Wine Enthusiast giving its 2012 vintage a 93. Prices are $60-

While they were married, Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie enjoyed a shared love of wine and in 2011 they bought a French estate in Provence and created Chateau Miraval (www.miraval.com), which specializes in rosés. In fact, its Cotes de Provence rosé was named one of the top 100 wines in the world by Wine Spectator in 2012. Since sales are mainly to restaurants, prices are not listed on its website.

And if you're looking to blow a little money, look no further than Armand de Brignac (armanddebrignac.com), a partnership between rapper Jay-Z and Moet Hennessy. Its champagnes are decidedly high end with prices starting at $200 and its star being the Brut Gold, which clocks in at around $299 and a 93 rating from Wine Spectator in 2016.
