Allison Janney brings 'Mom' to a sooner-than-wanted close

It's a bit ironic that in the week of Mother's Day, the time has come to say goodbye to "Mom."

The Chuck Lorre-produced CBS series – ostensibly a comedy, but also acclaimed for its amount of pathos – ends its eight-season run Thursday, May 13, with Allison Janney wrapping up the role of recovering addict Bonnie that earned the "I, Tonya" Oscar winner two of her six Primetime Emmy Awards. Lorre wrote the final episode.

"She's been really fun," the friendly Janney says of playing Bonnie, "for someone like me who always gets a thrill out of getting to be any character who's not me. She's narcissistic and unapologetic, and it's just a great excuse to be somebody completely different. And to be celebrated for it."

Janney gives full acknowledgement to fellow "Mom" star Anna Faris, who left the show before what turned out to be its last season. "It became about the two of us and our relationships with the women they knew in recovery," Janney reflects. "I loved the way the writers were willing to have the show tell them what it was about, and I'm so proud of what we've been able to do."

With that, Janney is clear about her feelings on "Mom" ending now: "I hate it! I've cried about it, and that's still going to come up a lot. We've showed living life in recovery, and that was the gift that meant so much to so many fans. The letters I've gotten from so many of them ... and the people that come up to me in the street and say they've gotten sober with 'Mom.' One young lady was worried her sobriety would end with the end of the show, and I said, 'Lord, no! We must carry on.' "

Given the wide syndication "Mom" repeats enjoy – on FXX, CMT and Nick at Nite, among other outlets – the show is destined to remain visible. Still, Janney maintains, "I wish the writers had been given a whole year to set up the finale, instead of a few episodes."

After taking some time to recharge, "The West Wing" alum Janney will tackle the adventure movie "Lou." She says the "Mom" staff "always worked with me" whenever she wanted to do an outside project, recalling that "when I filmed 'I, Tonya,' that was a huge thing. I was also rehearsing for 'Six Degrees of Separation,' which I was going to do on Broadway, and I was like, 'I don't know if this is going to work, guys.' But all of the producers got together and worked it out for me. I'm happiest when I'm working with people on a project. It's like a community."

"Crime Scene Kitchen" (Fox — series premiere, May 26)

Hosted by actor and comedian Joel McHale, each episode of this cooking competition begins at the scene of the crime — a kitchen that was just used to make an incredible dessert or cake that has since disappeared. The chef teams of two are challenged to scour the kitchen for clues and ingredients to figure out what was baked in order to decode and then re-create the recipe, with the winners walking away with the $100,000 prize.

"Movie: Songbird"

Adam Mason ("Junkie," "Blood River") co-wrote and directed this 2020 sci-fi drama with a storyline that may hit a little too close to home for some: a pandemic-ravaged world circa 2024 where a handful of individuals navigate the problems plaguing society, among them disease, vigilantes, martial law and quarantine. K.J. Apa, Sofia Carson, Craig Robinson and Bradley Whitford head the cast.

"Movie: Girl"

A young woman searches for answers after she heads to her hometown to kill her abusive father, only to find he'd been slain the day prior in this 2020 thriller from writer/director Chad Faust ("The 4400," "Saved!"). Bella Thorne ("Midnight Sun") stars as the title character in a cast with Mickey Rourke, Elizabeth Saunders and Faust.

"Movie: The Upside"

Bryan Cranston and Kevin Hart might seem like unlikely co-stars, but that's a character point in director Neil Burger's hit 2017 dramedy about a paralyzed billionaire (Cranston) who hires a recently paroled convict (Hart) to take care of him. Unexpectedly, a friendship eventually develops between these two very different men. Nicole Kidman, Tate Donovan and Julianna Margulies also star.

"Movie: Desierto"

From Mexico and co-writer/director Jonás Cuarón ("Year of the Nail") comes this 2020 actioner that casts Jeffrey Dean Morgan as Sam, a wildeyed American vigilante who stations himself at the U.S./Mexico border and intercepts Moises (Gael García Bernal) and his group of refugees attempting to cross. Alondra Hidalgo and Diego Catano also star.

The original first-order Fresnel lens in the St. Augustine Lighthouse was manufactured in Paris, France. In 1986, a vandal shot the lens at the top of the tower, damaging 19 of its 370 prisms. Then President of the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, Virginia Whetstone, spearheaded a first-of-its-kind restoration project with Dan Spinella of Disney Corporation. Taking advantage of breakthroughs in laser technology, Dan measured the prisms and created the means to fabricate a new bullseye panel and 18 other prisms.

Two Coast Guardsmen, Joseph Cocking, and Nicholas Johnston, who still service the Fresnel lens today, took out the damaged parts, replaced them, and aligned the beam correctly. Initially thought of as an impossible task for a fledgling non-profit, a team effort ensured the Fresnel lens restoration, which served as a pilot project that led to other original lens restorations across the United States.

Celtics look to Tatum to lead them to the postseason

As the season winds down to its last full week, the Boston Celtics need every win they can get to make the playoffs. And for that, they'll need a leader to step forward. Someone like Javson Tatum.

Indeed, in their 23-year-old small forward, the Celts have a budding superstar who has the ability to take over games and carry the team on his back. And in the season's second half, he's given ample evidence of his leadership.

Take, for instance, his performance in Milwaukee against the Bucks on March 26, when he went off for 34 points, six rebounds and seven assists in the Celts' 122-114 statement win over the East's No. 3 team. Or the next night in Oklahoma City, when he scored 20 of his 27 points in the second half as the Celtics rallied for a 111-94 victory.

And then there was his masterpiece, at home against the Minnesota Timberwolves on April 9. That was when Tatum rang up a season-high 53 points on 16-of-25 shooting and added 10 rebounds and four assists as Boston came back from a 17-point deficit to take a 145-136 victory in overtime.

For the season, Tatum's numbers are impressive: 25.1 points per game, seven rebounds and 4.3 assists (through mid-April). If the Celtics are to hope to advance in the postseason, they'll need more such performances from their two-time All-Star.

Tatum and the Celtics can be seen in action Sunday, May 9, when they host the Miami Heat in a clash of East playoff hopefuls on ESPN.

Taffer aids pandemic-stricken Vegas saloons in Season 8 of 'Bar Rescue'

Jon Taffer dials down his brand of tough love a few notches as he comes to the aid of pandemic-stricken Las Vegas establishments in Season 8 of Paramount Network's "Bar Rescue."

Airing Sundays, the new season finds the straight-talking Taffer in his adopted hometown helping local saloons come back from the brink of ruin after more than a year of little to no income. And unlike in previous seasons, where owners were largely to blame for their businesses failing, this crop of proprietors found themselves in dire straits through no fault of their own - just a COVID-19 pandemic that has devastated the hospitality industry, especially in Sin City.

"There is a real emotion this season and honestly, more of a thoughtfulness this season in the way I'm going about this," Taffer explains. "I'm not trying to demoralize people, I'm trying to build them up much more than having to take them down and then build them up again. On the other hand, the depth to which people are in trouble is greater than in a normal season."

Indeed, these are people who have not only lost their businesses but in some cases also their homes, thus forcing their families to move in with relatives. In one case, the owner's children were forced to sleep on the floor above the family restaurant. In another, a woman who was eight months pregnant was on the verge of being foreclosed on.

And while most problems could be traced to the pandemic, Taffer stresses that owners weren't blameless and that a little proactive management might have enabled them to circumvent their issues.

"When you look at the pandemic," he says, "there are operations that succeeded and survived. Maybe they put away a few more dollars for a rainy day. Maybe they operated at better margins. Maybe they were more nimble in the way they marketed. But some still stayed open. ... In some cases, had they operated their businesses differently or better, they would have survived the pandemic better. So there was still a bit of bar rescue in that I'm still challenging them on many of the things that they do and the ways they do them to try to improve their business. That hasn't

In the end, Taffer still gets a charge out of seeing a bar that he helped come back from the dead. A hug and a few kind words are his reward and doing it in the city where he lives is even more gratification.

'We're a singular economy here," he says. "We're strictly based on tourism and everything else in the city just supports the lives of those in the tourism business and the hospitality business. So this city was impacted more significantly than any other ... so focusing my efforts on Las Vegas made a lot of sense."

"Movie: Venus and Serena"

With that title, anyone who knows tennis won't be surprised to find this is a documentary about the sport's iconic Williams sisters. The film concentrates on their performances in 2011, when a variety of crises threatened their standings in the game ... but their off-court lives get as much attention, through candid footage that also details the huge role their father played in their progress.

"Movie: Frankie & Alice"

Halle Berry took a sharp turn away from her superhero persona in the "X-Men" movies to play a decidedly mortal character in Frankie, a stripper struggling with multiple personalities who puts herself in the care of an eccentric psychotherapist (Stellan Skarsgard, "Chernobyl"). Phylicia Rashad, Chandra Wilson and Matt Frewer also star in this 2010 biographical drama.

In Focus

"The Celebrity Dating Game" (ABC - series premiere, June 14)

Hosted by actress and singer-songwriter

Zooey Deschanel and multiple Grammy-winning singer-songwriter Michael Bolton, each episode of this new reality series follows two celebrities who each pick one lucky suitor from a hidden panel of three bachelors and/or bachelorettes based on answers to a variety of questions. Here's the twist — the celebrity identities will remain a mystery to their suitors, who are given clues via hilarious parody song performances by Bolton himself.

"Movie: Forgetting Sarah Marshall"

The forgetting isn't so easy for a composer (Jason Segel) after his television star girlfriend (Kristen Bell) leaves him in this raunchy comedy from producer Judd Apatow. Trying to shake his grief, the jilted guy goes to a Hawaiian resort where the other guests turn out to include his ex-love and her new rock-star beau (Russell Brand). Mila Kunis, Paul Rudd and Jonah Hill also appear.

"The Underground Railroad"

Oscar-winning screenwriter Barry Jenkins ("Moonlight") is the creative force behind this limited series that chronicles the flight to freedom of Cora Randall (newcomer Thuso Mbedu), who discovers an actual railroad with tracks, engineers and conductors beneath the soil of the Georgia plantation where she works and lives. Chase W. Dillon, Joel Edgerton and Aaron Pierre also star. (ORIGINAL)

THE LAST STAND

"High School Musical: The Musical: The Series: Season 2" (May 14)

Things get down and dirty as the East High Wildcats prepare to face off against archrivals North High in a cutthroat competition in Season 2 of this musical comedy. Broadway's Andrew Barth Feldman, Derek Hough and Asher Angel ("Andi Mack") guest star in this round, joining the returning regular cast of Olivia Rodrigo, Joshua Bassett, Matt Cornett, Sofia Wylie and Larry Saperstein. (ORIGINAL)

"X-Men: The Last Stand" (May 14)

It isn't the final round for all the heroes, since Hugh Jackman is spinning off his Wolverine character, but the group as a whole gets an exciting last hurrah. An apparent cure for the characters' mutant state sets up another high-pitched battle between the good guys under Xavier (Patrick Stewart) and the villains led by Magneto (Ian McKellen). Halle Berry also returns.

"Walk the Prank: Seasons 1-3" (Available now)

As the title suggests, this unscripted series that aired on Disney XD from 2016 to 2018 follows tweens Chance, Bailey, Dusty and Herman (Cody Veith, Jillian Shea Spaeder, Brandon Severs and Bryce Gheisar) as they target unsuspecting real people for pranks of a supernatural, scary, humorous or downright disgusting nature.

"The Island at the Top of the World" (Available now)

A pre-"Good Morning America" David Hartman is one of the stars of this 1974 family adventure that casts him as an archeologist who joins a British industrialist's 1907 search for his missing son in the Arctic that instead finds a lost colony of Vikings. Donald Sinden, Jacques Marin and Mako also star for director Robert Stevenson ("Mary Poppins").
