'Marvel's M.O.D.O.K.' proves that even evil megalomaniacs can have their problems

He may be a Mental Organism Designed Only for Killing, but the title character in a stop-motion animated Marvel series upcoming on Hulu is really just an insecure little boy at

In "Marvel's M.O.D.O.K.," premiering Friday, May 21, we are introduced to M.O.D.O.K. (voice of Patton Oswalt), a canister-shaped, clearly immature megalomaniac who floats around in his hover chair and vaporizes any who get in his way. He's the head of A.I.M., short for Advanced Idea Mechanics, whose motto is "settling for nothing less than conquering the world."

But the reality is A.I.M. is in trouble. Years of producing hair-brained tech toys like a Fitbit for pets and a cerebral cortex manipulator have left the firm in dire financial straits and even his right hand Monica (voice of Wendi McLendon-Covey) thinks he should step down. Worse, the search engine GRUMBL has designs on a buyout.

Things at home aren't much better. Wife Jodie (voice of Aimee Garcia), a social media star, has had it with her husband's selfish, self-involved behavior and offspring Lou and Melissa (Ben Schwartz, Melissa Fumero) don't have much of a relationship with him, either.

So with his company and his family life in ruins, M.O.D.O.K. is in for fight of his life.

The series was created by Oswalt and Jordan Blum and is based on the character from the Marvel Comic universe.

"There's this humor already built into the character of this megalomaniacal supervillain with a huge ego," Blum explains, "who has this self-doubt that kind of creeps through. And it drives him, and it makes him want to be taken seriously and want to be seen as something more. So having this as the basis of who this character was in the Marvel comics and then being able to explore that, you know, with his family and how he's seen at work, it kind of just lent itself to this type of show."

"We went back and looked at the original v'M.O.D.O.K.' comics," adds Oswalt, a longtime Marvel fan, "and he ... wasn't meant to be comedic, but he's so over-the-top rageful that a lot of (the scenes are) very unintentionally funny, I think. He is truly his own worst enemy. And as far as the blood and gore, we decided to take it to just Monty Python level so it doesn't feel offensive or disturbing. It's hilarious. We just said, 'Let's go way over the top with it.'

Oswalt, who has an extensive voice-acting resume that includes the TV series "BoJack Horseman," "Spider-Man" and "American Dad" and the feature films "Ratatouille" and "The Secret Life of Pets 2," says he had no problem coming up with the voice of a childish megalomaniac.

"I hate to say this because he's such a twisted, damaged character," he says, "but M.O.D.O.K.'s voice is just an amplified ... more treble-y version of my own voice. It's me when I'm at my most whiniest and angriest and petty. So that's all I had to do, was sort of crank it up that way. He was very, very fun to vocalize."

Three families of meerkats, all of them de-

Three families of meerkats, all of them descended from a formidable matriarch known as Flower, may share the latter's bloodline and neighboring South African turf. As this enduring — and often endearing — animal clan returns to TV for another season, however, these relatives are also rivals who are forced to compete for food, water and other resources in the rapidly shifting landscape of the Kalahari Desert. Bill Nighy narrates.

What's Available NOW On

"Movie: MLK/FBI"

From director Sam Pollard ("Sammy Davis Jr.: I've Gotta Be Me," "Black Art: In the Absence of Light") comes this compelling 2020 documentary that draws from information obtained from newly declassified documents and archival footage to tell the story of the U.S. government's surveillance and harassment of civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr.

"Movie: Cowboys"

Anna Kerrigan ("Five Days Gone") wrote and directed this heartfelt 2020 family drama that casts Steve Zahn ("That Thing You Do!") as Troy, a troubled Montana man who takes his trans son off into the wilderness when his mother (Jillian Bell, "Bless the Harts") refuses to recognize the child's sexual identity. Sasha Knight, Ann Dowd and Gary Farmer also star.

"Movie: Some Kind of Heaven" First-time documentarian Lance Oppenheim takes viewers inside the largest retirement community, The Villages in Central Florida, to see how its 100,000-plus well-off Baby Boomer residents are living out their golden years in this prefab, palm-tree-lined fantasyland for the aged located about an hour north of Walt Disney World.

"Marvel's M.O.D.O.K."

This animated series for adults follows the adventures of the megalomaniacal supervillain M.O.D.O.K. (short for Mental Organism Designed Only for Killing), who after years of failure in his quest for world domination finds his professional and personal lives in ruins. Patton Oswalt voices the title character, with Melissa Fumero ("Brooklyn Nine-Nine"), Ben Schwartz and Wendi McLendon-Covey also lending their vocal talents. (ORIGINAL)

The original first-order Fresnel lens in the St. Augustine Lighthouse was manufactured in Paris, France. In 1986, a vandal shot the lens at the top of the tower, damaging 19 of its 370 prisms. Then President of the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, Virginia Whetstone, spearheaded a first-of-its-kind restoration project with Dan Spinella of Disney Corporation. Taking advantage of breakthroughs in laser technology, Dan measured the prisms and created the means to

Two Coast Guardsmen, Joseph Cocking, and Nicholas Johnston, who still service the Fresnel lens today, took out the damaged parts, replaced them, and aligned the beam correctly. Initially thought of as an impossible task for a fledgling non-profit, a team effort ensured the Fresnel lens restoration, which served as a pilot project that led to other original lens restorations across the United States.

miere, June 7)
Quick-witted marketing manager Katie Thurston, who became an instant fan favorite during Season 25 of "The Bachelor" by being unabashedly herself while pursuing Bachelor Matt James, is in the driver's seat in Season 17 of this female-driven spinoff, which is filmed in New Mexico. Thurston definitely is ready to find a mate with whom she can build a life, but he'll have to be someone who can laugh along with her. Chris Harrison is sitting out this season as host, replaced by former Bachelorettes Tayshia Adams and Kaitlyn Bristowe.

"Money Explained"

Most of us have a complicated relationship with money and what we don't recognize is it's pretty common. This series brings the problems out in the open and talks about topics like exploitative credit cards and how most people won't be able to save enough for retirement. It also offers tips on how to avoid the pitfalls. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: Framing John DeLorean'

Part documentary, part docudrama, this feature-length 2019 film chronicles the life and career of the visionary automaker (portrayed by Alec Baldwin), from his rise with General Motors to his quest to build his revolutionary sports car. Josh Charles, Morena Baccarin, Dean Winters and Michael Rispoli also star for co-directors Don Argott and Sheena M. Joyce ("Batman & Bill").

"Movie: Army of the Dead"

Zack Snyder ("Dawn of the Dead," "Watchmen") co-wrote and directed this 2021 actioner about a group of mercenaries who venture into a quarantine zone to pull off a daring heist following a zombie outbreak in Las Vegas. Dave Bautista, Ella Purnell, Omari Hardwick and Ana de la Reguera head the cast. (ORIGINAL)

"Sam Smith: Love Goes Live at Abbey Road Studios"

Due to the pandemic, Smith was able to make only one 2020 concert appearance in support of his album "Love Goes" and that's this performance livestreamed in October. Backed by a full band, Smith performs a 13-song set that includes "Diamonds," "Kids Again" and "Dancing With a Stranger." He's also joined by special guests rapper Labrinth and actress Jade Anouka.

Can Nolan Arenado conquer the unfriendly confines of Busch Stadium?

Those who thought Nolan Arenado's otherworldly offensive numbers would come down to Earth once he left Coors Field will certainly take interest in how he fares this season.

Indeed, the former Colorado Rockies third baseman and three-time National League home run champ now faces the spacious dimensions of Busch Stadium in his first season as a St. Louis Cardinal after eight in the thin air of Denver's Coors Field, where he regularly rang up MVP-like numbers.

His stats through his first month with his new team are less than impressive. Through 21 games, the five-time All-Star was hitting .253 with four homers, a .303 on-base percentage and an .749 OPS. And his numbers at Busch, the decidedly hitterunfriendly park where he will be playing half his games this season, are also underwhelming: .235 average, two homers, .297 OBP and a .768 OPS in nine contests.

Arenado's career stats, however, tell a tale of two different players. Over eight seasons at Coors, he hit .322 with 136 homers, a .376 OBP and an OPS of .985. Everywhere else:

.263 with 99 dingers, .322 and .793. But within that are 24 career games at Busch prior to 2021, in which he had five homers, an OBP of .337 and an OPS of .848, numbers more in line with his Coors stats.

So is he the product of Coors Field or is he a devastating hitter no matter where he plays? Certainly, a full 162-game season at Busch will help answer the question.

Arenado and the Cardinals can be seen in action Sunday, May 16, when they conclude a three-game road series against the San Diego Padres in a game airing on ESPN.

Bertinelli ready for a picnic on 'Valerie's Home Cooking'

In the age of the pandemic, getting outdoors is a welcome escape from day-to-day isolation. And these days, it also seems kind of exotic.

Valerie Bertinelli is feeling it, too, which is why in the new season of her Food Network series "Valerie's Home Cooking," she's ready to have a picnic. So in the episode airing Sunday, May 16, the cookbook author and former "Hot in Cleveland" and "One Day at a Time" actress prepares a portable meal for husband-and-wife Southern California first responders.

"That comes from one of my best girlfriends, Jo Stougaard, who happens to be a travel and food writer," Bertinelli explains. "And her nephew Chase happens to be a firefighter and his wife is a nurse. So I thought, 'Well, I want to pay it forward to them. And I know Jo, she can bring them the food.' And it was a lot of fun to put together some really great travel food, if anybody wants to have their own picnic, especially since we can go outside now without masks. You can go to a park and have a picnic."

As for what always goes into her picnic basket, Bertinelli starts with the obvious.

"Sandwiches, of course," she says. "Easy sandwiches, easy cold salads – any kind of salad that travels easy like a slaw, because cabbages hold up or kale will hold up better. And just great sandwiches, There's so many different things you can do. Sandwiches are like pizza. Like anything you put between bread is going to taste great. Anything you put on top of bread and bake it like a pizza is going to taste great. You know, only your imagination can hold you back."

In another episode this season, Bertinelli does a remote segment for NBC's "Today" and heads to the New York apartment of that show's co-host Hoda Kotb to demonstrate a steak recipe. And then burgers are the focus of another installment, in which she challenges herself to come up with new variations on an American classic.

Away from "Home Cooking," Bertinelli has a pilot for a prospective series airing Saturday, May 22, titled "Valerie's Hot Dish," in which she invites actress friends Melissa Peterman and Nicole Sullivan over to her house for food, drink and conversation, with guest appearances by TV personality Ross Mathews and her Food Network cohort Duff Goldman.

"Maybe you call it like a cross between a talk show and a cooking show," Bertinelli says. "It's a little bit of everything. I'd be curious to see what people kind of call it when they tune in to watch.

"Maybe we'll get more of an idea," she adds with a laugh.

"Movie: The Boy From Medellin"

From filmmaker Matthew Heineman ("Tiger," "Cartel Land") comes this feature length documentary that follows Columbian reggae singer J Balvin as the Latin Grammy winner prepares for the biggest concert of his career — a sold-out stadium show in his hometown of Medellin, a city beset by political unrest. (ORIGINAL)

(Patton) Oswalt

(Aimee) Garcia

"Movie: Breach"

This action-packed 2020 sci-fi thriller from director John Suits ("Pandemic," "3022") is set in the near future, where a junior mechanic and soonto-be father aboard an interstellar ark bound for New Earth must outwit a malevolent extraterrestrial being with designs on using the spaceship as a weapon. Bruce Willis, Cody Kearsley, Rachel Nichols and Kassandra Clementi head the cast.

In Focus

"The Choe Show" (FX — series premiere, June 25)
Is there such a thing as "radical empathy"?

Celebrated artist and star David Choe thinks there is, as he demonstrates by turning his quirky, compassionate yet sometimes disruptive worldview into a lens for the audience to experience a kinship with others around them. From inside his childhood home, Choe takes guests on a journey during which he becomes both a motivational interviewer and a compassionate listener. Both he and his guests have a shared emotional experience by using art and play as tools to connect.

"Solos"

A formidable cast that includes Morgan Freeman, Uzo Aduba, Helen Mirren, Anne Hathaway, Anthony Mackie and Constance Wu lend their talents to this seven-part anthology series from creator David Weil ("Hunters") that explores the strange, wondrous, beautiful, heart-breaking and hilarious truths of what it means to be human. (ORIGINAL)

"Movie: P!nk: All I Know So Far"

Michael Gracey ("The Greatest Showman") directed this documentary that follows the singer behind such hits as"Just Give Me a Reason" and "So What" as she tries to balance her personal and professional lives while preparing to embark on her record-breaking 2019 world tour in support of her album "Beautiful Trauma."
