

'NCIS' bids New Orleans farewell as CBS spinoff signs off

Thursday, May 20, 2021 I The Recorder entertainment EXTRA

In helping to bring "NCIS: New Orleans" to a close, CCH Pounder is leaving it with Pride.

That's as in Dwayne Pride, the Scott Bakula-portrayed team leader who Pounder's coroner character Loretta Wade has worked with closely on the CBS drama, which wraps up its sevenseason run Sunday, May 23. In the series finale, Pride is preparing to marry his security-official girlfriend Rita (played by Bakula's real-life wife Chelsea Field) when he's distracted by an ongoing case.

As the sun sets on one "NCIS" spinoff, another is on the horizon - using one of its favorite actionshow locations, CBS has ordered "NCIS: Hawaii" for next season - but Pounder says she's satisfied with the ending given her "New Orleans" alter ego.

"There's always a catchphrase like, 'She's the moral center' or 'She's the best friend or the great adviser,' " the pleasant Pounder muses, "and that usually means, 'Uh-oh. There's not going to be much for her to do.' But (the show's producers and writers) were really very attentive to someone interested in building a character who was something other than a fabulous workhorse."

Though "NCIS" already had vielded a successful offshoot in "NCIS: Los Angeles," Pounder maintains she never saw "NCIS: New Orleans" as a sure bet to be ordered when she became involved.

In Focus

"The Cube" (TBS — series premiere,

June 10) NBA All-Star Dwayne Wade hosts this new U.S. adaptation of a hit U.K. competition series in which contestant pairs must demonstrate their skill, determination and sheer nerve as they attempt seemingly straightforward mental and physical tasks. Unfortunately for them, those challenges become exponentially harder because they're confined in the titular glass box that seems to have a mind and attitude of its While trying to win the $250,000 jackpot, each team can bring in Wade to compete on their behalf for one attempt only.

"Oh, good grief, no!," she says emphatically. "I was one of those who was like, 'There's two of them already. What could a third one possibly be?' I was not expecting anything, but once I discovered that New Orleans itself was going to be a huge character in the show, I would see such unexpected things in the background ... trains, bridges, all these natural things. I always thought that was a wonderful sort of paint brush to use in showing what the city would be like."

In fact, Pounder enjoyed it enough to become a full-time resident there: She and her late husband gave up their house in California and moved to one in the Big Easy; where she plans to remain based, at least for the time being. She had worked earlier with "NCIS: New Orleans" star Bakula on his series "Quantum Leap," but after much other television work ranging from "The X-Files" to "The West Wing," she reasons, "I think I can operate from pretty much anywhere these days, provided that the health and travel restrictions are cool.'

As she says goodbye to "NCIS: New Orleans," then, Pounder is glad she's not also having to do the same to the actual New Orleans. "The people are exceedingly friendly," she enthuses, "and I really have appreciated their appreciation of our being here. They still get excited about seeing film crews, and that's really nice."

What's Available NOW On

"Movie: Shadow in the Cloud" Roseanne Liang ("Do No Harm," "My Wedding and Other Secrets") co-wrote and directed this 2020 horror actioner about a World War II pilot (Chloe Grace Moretz, "Dark Shadows") traveling with classified documents who encounters an evil entity aboard her B-17 flying fortress. Nick Robinson, Beulah Koale, Taylor John Smith and Callan Mulvey also star in this U.S./New Zealand co-production.

"Movie: Race for Your Life, Charlie Brown!"

The Peanuts gang is at it again in this feature-length 1977 animated adventure that garnered good reviews but disappointing box office numbers. The story finds Charlie, Linus, Snoopy and their friends away for the summer at Camp Remote, where they endure a variety of mishaps and participate in a whitewater rafting race against a group of bullies.

"Movie: Neat: The Story of Bourbon"

Co-writer/director David Altrogge's ("3801 Lancaster: American Tragedy," "Clemente") 2018 documentary celebrates the artistry of America's only native spirit through an exploration of its history and interviews with those who make it, including master distillers Marianne Barnes and Denny Potter and actor Steve Zahn ("That Thing You Do!").

"Movie: Wander Darkly" Sienna Miller ("21 Bridges") stars as a woman so emotionally traumatized by a car accident that she believes her injuries were fatal and she's a ghost, thus forcing her and her partner (Diego Luna, "Narcos: Mexico") to dig into memories of their past for answers in this 2020 drama from writer/director Tara Miele ("Starving in Suburbia"). Beth Grant and Vanessa Bayer also star.

The original first-order Fresnel lens in the St. Augustine Lighthouse was manufactured in Paris, France. In 1986, a vandal shot the lens at the top of the tower, damaging 19 of its 370 prisms. Then President of the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, Virginia Whetstone, spearheaded a first-of-its-kind restoration project with Dan Spinella of Disney Corporation. Taking advantage of breakthroughs in laser technology, Dan measured the prisms and created the means to fabricate a new bullseye panel and 18 other prisms.

Two Coast Guardsmen, Joseph Cocking, and Nicholas Johnston, who still service the Fresnel lens today, took out the damaged parts, replaced them, and aligned the beam correctly. Initially thought of as an impossible task for a fledgling non-profit, a team effort ensured the Fresnel lens restoration, which served as a pilot project that led to other original lens restorations across the United States.

"Us on Masterpiece" (PBS — series premiere, June 20) Adapted from David Nicholls' Booker

Adapted from David Nicholls' Booker Prize-nominated novel, this new two-part, fourhour dramedy (which concludes next Sunday) revolves around Douglas and Connie (Tom Hollander, Saskia Reeves), a scientist and artist respectively, whose once provocative differences in personality have only become more tedious over the course of their 20-year marriage. Now that their moody son, Albie (Tom Taylor, "The Dark Tower"), is about to head to university, Douglas thinks it's the perfect time for one last big family vacation. Connie, however, thinks it's the perfect time to ask for a divorce.

sportsquiz BY GEORGE DICKIE Baltimore Orioles

player profile BY GEORGE DICKIE Chase Elliott: NASCAR's king of the road course

Fans asked and NASCAR answered: There will be more road courses on the 2021 Cup schedule - seven to be exact. And it is on this type of track where Chase Elliott excels. In fact, were it not for a late-race spinout in February's O'Reilly Auto Parts 253 on Daytona International Speedway's road course, he might be going for his sixth straight win in the inaugural EchoPark Texas Grand Prix, which airs on FS1 Sunday, Feb. 23, from the Circuit of the Americas in Austin. Dating back to August 2019, he'd bagged four consecutive wins on the twisty configurations, taking checkered flags at Watkins Glen, Daytona and two on the Charlotte Roval. And his overall stats on road courses are impressive. In 13 career races, he's won five, with six top 5's, eight top 10's and 284 laps led - all numbers that far outpace those of any other active Cup driver. And his four-straight wins is exceeded only by only Jeff Gordon's six from 1997 to 2000.

As for the secret of his success, Elliott once remarked that there is none other than "trying to be better than we were last time." His crew chief Alan Gustafson, however, was a little more succinct. "I think it's him ...," he said. "He's really, really good."

Whatever the case, Elliott will be taking to the 20-turn, 3.426-mile track of the Circuit of Americas on Sunday to do battle with the likes of Joey Logano, Kevin Harvick, Martin Truex Jr. and others in pursuit of his fifth road course victory in six races.

Bakers turn detective to recreate delicious desserts on Fox's 'Crime Scene Kitchen'

Fans of baking and forensic investigation will likely find a unique new competition series upcoming on Fox suits their tastes.

In each episode of "Crime Scene Kitchen," premiering Wednesday, May 26, contestants are tasked with entering a kitchen and then using a scant few clues left behind – crumbs, trails of flour, contents of a trash can, etc. – determining the delicious dessert that had just been consumed. They then must set about recreating the confection. The baker who not only gets the dish right but also most impresses the judges – chef Curtis Stone and cake artist Yolanda Gampp – wins a $100,000 grand prize.

So not only is there baking know-how and technical expertise at play here but also deductive reasoning, a mix Joel McHale – the show's host and a non-baker – found fascinating.

"When you go in the kitchen, you have to check everything," he explains, "including like the bulletin board, you can check the garbage, you have to check the dishwasher. And the (contestants) are like, 'Well, I used milk.' And (the judges are) like, 'You shouldn't have. Why? Because the milk was not opened. Just because it's there doesn't mean it was used.' So there are a couple of misdirects which drive people out of their minds. It's great, and the clues only get harder and harder as the thing goes on. So sometimes you wind up with close to everybody baking the same thing and then other times just everything is different."

And it is in those other times when things get interesting as contestants will create an absolutely over-the-top spectacular dessert worthy of winning any baking contest – but it's only problem is it's wrong. The judges then must decide whether that baker continues or goes home.

The contestants are a mix of professional and home bakers, some of whom thrive under the bright lights of televised competition while others grapple with their nerves. It is the job of McHale, a stand-up comic by trade, to keep things light and enable the competitors to focus.

"I am a Golden Retriever dropping the tennis ball in front of you so you'll throw it," he says. "So I enjoy all that and I literally get my energy from it. ... I enjoy getting to know the bakers; they all have very interesting backgrounds. ... So I think Fox wanted a non-baker or non-chef as their host just to keep everything kind of – you know, the judges are the experts and the host is the person making loud noises into a microphone and the bakers are baking."

"Movie: Hotel Artemis" Drew Pearce wrote and made his feature directorial debut with this 2018 thriller set in a dystopian nearfuture Los Angeles, where Jean Thomas (Jodie Foster), a severely agoraphobic nurse, runs a secret facility that caters to criminals (house rules include "no killing of other guests"). The impressive ensemble also includes Sterling K. Brown, Jeff Goldblum, Charlie Day, Jenny Slate and Zachary Quinto.

"Movie: Trumbo"

Bryan Cranston scored a well-deserved Oscar nomination as best actor for his performance in the title role of Jay Roach's 2015 biopic about the life of esteemed screenwriter Dalton Trumbo, who landed on the infamous Hollywood blacklist after he declined to cooperate fully with the House Committee on Un-American Activities looking into possible Communist propaganda in film. Diane Lane, Helen Mirren and John Goodman also star.

"Movie: Nobody"

Bob Odenkirk ("Better Call Saul") stars as a seemingly milquetoast family man who turns out to be so much more after invaders attempt to rob his home in this joint Spanish/Russian/ American production. Connie Nielsen, Christopher Lloyd and Michael Ironside star in this 2021 actioner from director Ilya Naishuller ("Hardcore Henry").

"Panic"

Creator Lauren Oliver used her young adult novel of the same name as the basis for this hourlong drama about a group of graduating Texas high-school seniors who compete in an annual series of challenges that this year has ramped up to dangerous levels. Olivia Welch, Mike Naist, Jessica Sula and Enrique Murciano ("Without a Trace") head the cast. (ORIGINAL)

"Kingdom of the Polar Bears" (May 28)

From Canada and CBC Television comes this two-part documentary that tells the story of a mother polar bear and her two cubs as they make the arduous and dangerous 50-mile trek from their birth den under the snow to the flow ice of Hudson Bay.

"Cruella" (May 28) This origin story is set in the punk rock era of 1970s London, where young grifter Estella (Emma Stone) is determined to make a name for herself with her designs. Catching the eye of fashionista Baroness von Hellman (Emma Thompson), their partnership sets in motion a series of events that will cause the girl to embrace her dark side and become the evil Cruella. (ORIGINAL) <text>

"Launchpad" (May 28)

This collection of six live-action shorts puts six filmmakers from underrepresented backgrounds in the spotlight as they present their unique perspectives and creative visions. Among the films are "Dinner Is Served," about a Chinese student who tries out for a leadership position no international student has ever applied for; and "Growing Fangs," about a Mexican-American teen who is halfvampire. (ORIGINAL)

"Fantastic 4: Rise of the Silver Surfer" (Available now)

With a faster pace and more humor amid the action, this sequel proves more entertaining than the first liveaction movie about the Marvel Comics superheroes. Stretchable Reed Richards and "Invisible Girl" Sue Storm (Ioan Gruffudd, Jessica Alba) are about to marry when they must pursue the Silver Surfer, the apparent cause of catastrophes around the world.
