The Kennedy Center Honors celebrate Dick Van Dyke and others

The Kennedy Center Honors still can be surprising, in that some legends of the performing arts haven't gotten them sooner.

A prime example: Dick Van Dyke, one of the most beloved stars in television history. He's in this year's Honors "class" as CBS broadcasts the 43rd annual ceremony Sunday, June 6, reconfigured for the coronavirus-pandemic age with segments taped in and around the Center in Washington, D.C. The latest Honors also celebrate actress-director-choreographer Debbie Allen, singer-songwriter and activist Joan Baez, country-music superstar Garth Brooks and violinist Midori. Past Honors recipient Gloria Estefan is the host.

A winner of five Primetime Emmy Awards plus a Tony (for "Bye Bye Birdie") and a Grammy, the ever-friendly Van Dyke muses that being notified of his Kennedy Center Honor "completely escaped my comprehension. It's just beyond my expectations. I had no idea this was coming." While he's gratified to receive the Kennedy Center Honors, the 95-year-old Van Dyke reflects, "I just took jobs as they came. I went from vaudeville to radio to nightclubs to television. I've had it all ... and how lucky can you get? I've been trying to piece together the events of the past 70 years and how I got here!"

Here, Van Dyke reflects on some highlights of his career.

"Chopped: Alton's Maniacal Baskets" (Food Network — series premiere, June 22)

Sixteen chefs come face-toface with the culinary science mastermind himself as he and his conspiring social media following determine what zany ingredients the contestants must use to create their dishes. The chef that rises to the top and survives this wild ride walks away with the $50,000 cash prize. Ted Allen hosts as Alton Brown, Maneet Chauhan and Marcus Samuelsson occupy the judges panel. "Bye Bye Birdie" (1960-61 on stage, 1963 on film): "We were doing previews in Philadelphia, and the writers came down with a new song – and it was 'Put On a Happy Face.' And Chita (co-star Rivera) said, 'You know, Dick doesn't have anything to do in the first act. Why don't you give it to him?' And my life changed, right there. What a gal."

"The Dick Van Dyke Show" (1961-66): "It was very carefully crafted, because of the way Carl (creator-producer Reiner) wrote. He made us all believable, and the cast was just dynamite from the very beginning. Mary (Tyler Moore) had never done comedy, and she picked it up so fast."

"Mary Poppins" (1964): "Out of Carl's hands, I fell into Walt Disney's hands, and that was just lovely. That movie is going to be around for a long time."

"Chitty Chitty Bang Bang" (1968): "As we were finishing up that picture, Sean Connery was leaving the James Bond series – and ('Chitty' and Bond producer) Cubby Broccoli came to me and said, 'Do you want to play Bond?' And I said, 'Have you heard my British accent?' And that was the end of that!"

"Diagnosis Murder" (1993-2001 as a series, with related TV-movies both before and after it): "I never saw myself as a sleuth, but it worked. And at one point, I had all my kids and all my grandkids on the show!"

This new series picks up the day after the Monsters, Incorporated factory in the city of Monstropolis changed their power supply source from children's screams to laughter, thanks to the discovery by Mike and Sulley. A fresh Monsters University grad, Tylor Tuskmon has spent his entire life dreaming of being a Scarer, until he discovers that his dream job is no longer supported by the business. The voice talent includes Ben Feldman, Billy Crystal and John Goodman.

DISCOVER FLORIDA'S FIRST LIGHTHOUSE

was manufactured in Paris, France. In 1986, a vandal shot the lens at the top of the tower, damaging 19 of its 370 prisms. Then President of the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, Virginia Whetstone, spearheaded a first-of-its-kind restoration project with Dan Spinella of Disney Corporation. Taking advantage of breakthroughs in laser technology, Dan measured the prisms and created the means to fabricate a new bullseye panel and 18 other prisms.

Two Coast Guardsmen, Joseph Cocking, and Nicholas Johnston, who still service the Fresnel lens today, took out the damaged parts, replaced them, and aligned the beam correctly. Initially thought of as an impossible task for a fledgling non-profit, a team effort ensured the Fresnel lens restoration, which served as a pilot project that led to other original lens restorations across the United States.

Pato O'Ward a force to be reckoned with in IndyCar

Pato O'Ward is one of IndyCar's brightest young stars. But the upcoming Chevrolet Detroit Grand Prix provided him with one of his darkest moments of 2019.

It was on the 2.35-mile, 14-turn street course on Belle Isle where the Mexico native turned in one of the worst performances of his rookie year in the series, finishing 14th out of 22 drivers in Race 1 and 11th in Race 2. It was one of seven races he'd run that year after signing a part-time deal with Carlin and he wound up finishing 26th in points.

But 2020, a bad year for most everybody, proved to be the 22-year-old's breakthrough season. In a pandemic-abbreviated 14-race schedule, he took fourth place in the IndyCar standings, registering four podium finishes and one pole. And in his inaugural appearance in the Indianapolis 500, he wound up in sixth place, thus earning him the race's Rookie of the Year honors.

This season, it's been more of the same for the driver of the No. 5 Chevrolet for Arrow McLaren SP, as he's in second place in series points as of mid-May, with two podiums in four starts, including his first IndyCar win at Texas Motor Speedway, which he considers his home track.

Saturday and Sunday, June 12 and 13, he'll be looking to put the bad memories of two years ago in the Motor City behind him when he vies with a field including Scott Dixon, Ryan Hunter-Reay, Josef Newgarden and Takuma Sato in the twin races of the 2021 Chevrolet Detroit Grand Prix, both of which air on NBC.

Get out, get away and dine at celebrity chef-owned restaurants

With COVID restrictions loosening and the hospitality industry coming back online, Americans can finally get back to two of their favorite pastimes: traveling and going out to eat.

And if they're so inclined, those who like to travel on their stomach can venture to locations around the country to dine in restaurants owned and/or inspired by their favorite TV chefs. So whether it's Italian, burgers or farmto-table you crave, there is no doubt an eatery with a celebrity chef's name on it to suit your tastes. Such as the establishments below.

Emeril's New Orleans Fish House, Las Vegas: As the name suggests, seafood and Creole cooking are what's for dinner at Emeril Lagasse's establishment on The Strip at the MGM Grand, offering kicked-up versions of market-fresh fish and shellfish creations alongside flavorful steaks and inspired pork and chicken dishes. And if you're into wine, you can pair your dish with Wine Spectator favorites. Entrees are in the $40-60 range.

Craft Los Angeles: Tom Colicchio brought his "what's local is best" style of cooking from New York to this West Coast establishment that emphasizes seasonal dining and warm hospitality in its main dining room and patio. Among the items on the dinner menu are diver scallops, Wagyu sirloin, Alaskan halibut k and a pork rack. Entrees run $32-62.

Bobby's Burger Palace, various locations: Burgers, fries and shakes are what's on the menu of this chain from chef Bobby Flay, which has locations in Maryland, Connecticut, New York, Las Vegas, Ohio, Georgia, New Jersey and Washington, D.C. As one would guess, the creations are imaginative with toppings ranging from blue cheese and bacon to green chilis and cole slaw. There are also salads and other choices for the health-conscious. Prices are sub-$10.

Gordon Ramsay Hell's Kitchen, Las Vegas: Head to Caesars Palace on The Strip to dine at this eatery that offers an la carte menu with items such as beef Wellington, braised short ribs, jidori chicken scallopini and a dry-aged New York strip. Entree prices run $32-60. There is also a prix fixe three-course menu offered with ($149) and without wine ($90).

GDL Italian by Giada, Baltimore: Giada de Laurentiis shares her signature Italian dishes in an open-concept dining room in this restaurant inside Horseshoe Casino Baltimore, offering her own spins on traditional favorites like chicken parmesan, antipasti, baked lasagna and Tuscan ribeye. Prices are in the $35-60 range. After being closed due to the pandemic, it's slated to reopen this week.

"Movie: Battle of the Sexes" Emma Stone and Steve Carell both received Golden Globe Award nominations for their performances as tennis icons Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs in this 2017 British-American biographical sports film that takes a lightly comedic approach in its chronicle of events leading up to the highly publicized 1973 match between them. Despite mostly very good reviews and additional accolades, the film doublefaulted at the box office.

"Movie: Indignation"

James Schamus' 2016 drama chronicles the coming of age experiences of a young Jewish man (Logan Lerman) who leaves Newark to attend a small college in 1951 Ohio. There he falls in love with Olivia (Sarah Gadon), a patrician beauty, and clashes with the dean (Tracy Letts) of the school. Linda Emond and Danny Burstein also star in the film.

"Movie: Skyfall"

Arguably the best-reviewed James Bond film since "Goldfinger," this 2012 entry offers Daniel Craig's third round as Agent 007, who struggles to reclaim his place in MI6 after an assignment goes awry. He tries to protect boss M (Judi Dench) and the agency from an enemy (a superbly showy Javier Bardem). Adele performs the title song.

In Focus
