

The same but different: Summer Olympics return post-pandemic

Shrouded in uncertainty and a year late, the 2020 Tokyo Olympics get going this week with as much anticipation as any in recent memory.

Kicking off Wednesday, July 21, two days before the Opening Ceremony on Friday, July 23, NBC along with USA Network, CNBC, NBC Sports Network, Golf Channel, Peacock, Olympic Channel, Telemundo, Universo, the NBC Sports app and NBCOlympics.com will provide over 7,000 hours of coverage of 33 sports. Among them are swimming, diving, basketball, gymnastics, track and field, beach volleyball and boxing, plus new sports karate, skateboarding, sport climbing and surfing and returnees baseball and softball.

More than 11,000 male and female athletes from 206 countries will be at these games, the status of which was in doubt as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. At this writing, arenas and venues in the Japanese capital were set at 50 percent capacity up to 10,000 spectators. But despite the anxiety and all the restrictions in place, Mike Tirico, NBC's prime-time studio host for these games, thinks Tokyo will make a fine host city.

"This is one of the great cities in the world," he says, "and I think tourists from around the world would've come to the games. And I think that's just the unfortunate part of this timing for the host city. You know, you plan seven years out for the games and this would've been such a spectacular games. And as you know, there's so much culture ...

"Money Court" (CNBC — series premiere, Aug. 11) Entrepreneur Kevin O'Leary

presides over a diverse docket of financial disputes ranging from estranged business partners at odds over a deal gone sour to siblings falling out over a family business venture in this new financial series. Working with veteran trial attorney Katie Phang and former judge Ada Pozo, O'Leary can be relied upon to consider all sides of any case and examine all relevant evidence before rendering financial judgment in the matter at hand. "Having said that, I think they'll put on a great games," he continues. "The venues were, according to the IOC, more ready and prepared than any city that hosted the Summer Games, so we were really in for a great games. So from a preparation standpoint of the venues, the facilities for the athletes, I think that's going to be still as good as possible."

In the weeks prior to these games, Tirico has been crisscrossing the country, taking in qualifying events in various sports and making note of athletes to watch. And he's also looking at the big stories. In particular, Usain Bolt's absence means there will be a new fastest man in the world. And he sees U.S. gymnast Simone Biles adding more medals to her collection and the American swim team dominating as well.

And in soccer, the U.S. women's team will look for a modicum of redemption for their deflating loss to Sweden in the quarterfinals in Rio de Janeiro in 2016 when they face that country early in competition.

"Coming off the success of the World Cup," Tirico says, "I think the likes of Megan Rapinoe and everyone else has become extremely popular athletes in this country. And they're just one example of what I think is the overall strength of Team USA in Tokyo and that is the women's teams. ... It really will be a lot of the focus of the coverage and of America's best medal chances coming from many of those women."

DISCOVER FLORIDA'S FIRST LIGHTHOUSE

The original first-order Fresnel lens in the St. Augustine Lighthouse was manufactured in Paris, France. In 1986, a vandal shot the lens at the top of the tower, damaging 19 of its 370 prisms. Then President of the Junior Service League of St. Augustine, Virginia Whetstone, spearheaded a first-of-its-kind restoration project with Dan Spinella of Disney Corporation. Taking advantage of breakthroughs in laser technology, Dan measured the prisms and created the means to fabricate a new bullseye panel and 18 other prisms.

Two Coast Guardsmen, Joseph Cocking, and Nicholas Johnston, who still service the Fresnel lens today, took out the damaged parts, replaced them, and aligned the beam correctly. Initially thought of as an impossible task for a fledgling non-profit, a team effort ensured the Fresnel lens restoration, which served as a pilot project that led to other original lens restorations across the United States.

playerprofile BY GEORGE DICKIE Rapinoe, Team USA look to put 2016 elimination behind them

It was the loss that left an indelible mark on the U.S. women's soccer team.

At the 2016 Summer Olympics at Rio de Janeiro, the heavily favored Americans lost to Sweden on penalties in the quarterfinals, marking the first time in 16 years the team went home without at least making the gold medal game. Afterward, said Megan Rapinoe, Team USA's high-scoring midfielder, "we felt like total failures." So much so that she says they will never let anything like that happen again.

And that will be put to the test Wednesday, July 21, when Team USA meets the Swedes in a group stage game at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. For the 36-year-old Rapinoe, this will be her third Olympics. She was on the team in 2016 but was relegated to the bench because she was still recovering from major knee surgery. But she was one of the stars of the 2012 team in London as she helped lead the U.S. to the gold medal.

On this year's 18-player team, she stands as one of the oldest players on a team of veterans and fresh faces whose average age is almost 31. She won the Golden Ball and the Golden Boot at the 2019 World Cup and now Team USA is trying to become the first team to follow a World Cup title with Olympic gold.

It would mean vindication to a U.S. team trying to put a deflating loss behind them and add yet another trophy in the much-decorated Rapinoe's career.

NATIONAL TEAMS: United States U-20 (2003-05); United ACHIEVEMENTS: Olympic gold medal (2012); two-time World Cup champion (2015, 2019); two-time CONCACAF Women's World Championship (2014, 2018); Algarve Cup (2011, 2013, 2015)

For the unusual and the exotic, turn it to Cooking Channel and Food Network

No matter how much into food you are, you can always count on Food Network and Cooking Channel to show you something you've never seen before.

Be it a cuisine from a far-off land or a little-known protein or vegetable, there is always something that maybe you might want to try or at the very least watch someone else try it and hear what they think. So if you're bored with your own cooking and looking for new ideas, fire up the flatscreen and check out the following shows.

And nothing is more unusual than the fare that Andrew Zimmern digs into on the Thursday, July 22, episode of his Cooking Channel series "Bizarre Foods America," which lands him in Pittsburgh to try the goat heart tartare, a cutting edge dish that we won't try to describe except to say it sounds bloody interesting. Also on the menu are more conventional dishes like stuffed cabbage and braunschweiger.

A little less on the raw side are the munchies Zimmern digs into on "Bizarre Foods: Delicious Destinations" on Monday, July 19, on Cooking Channel, in which he samples what San Diego has to offer, including an octopus tostada, Filipino chicken adobo, So-Cal monster burritos and Mexican-inspired fish tacos. And San Diego is one town that knows how to do fish tacos right. If it is small bites you seek, "Snackmasters" on Cooking Channel on Sunday, July 18, has chefs Anna Haugh and Aktar Islam trying to replicate a lunchbox favorite, a packet of Quavers, a potato-based snack from Great Britain that dates back more than 50 years and currently comes in flavors like cheese, prawn cocktail and salt and vinegar.

Over on Food Network, chef Michael Symon honors his Greek heritage on the Saturday, July 24, edition of "Symon's Dinners Cooking Out," with his own spins on two classic grilled foods: skewered chicken and pork souvlaki with a side of tzatziki sauce and homemade pita bread. Opa!

Not to be outdone, Valerie Bertinelli is testing the boundaries of cookie making on her Sunday edition of "Valerie's Home Cooking" by making cookies for any time of day, including a breakfast sandwich cookie, thyme and gruyere savory cookies, coconut chocolate chip cookies and chocolate and orange hazelnut cookies.

And on "The Kitchen" on Saturday, greens are the order of the day as Katie Lee Biegel cooks up spicy chicken eggplant boats, Alex Guarnaschelli uses every part of the carrot to prepare her roasted carrots with carrottop pesto, and Geoffrey Zakarian goes spicy with his spinach and Swiss chard stew with coconut curry greens and lentils.

"How the States Got Their Shapes"

You don't have to be a geography geek to enjoy this series that premiered a decade ago on History. Brian Unger, a former correspondent for "The Daily Show," serves up fascinating facts about how our state lines were drawn, with each episode focusing on one theme. The first episode, "A River Runs Through It," is about the role of water in shaping the states.

"Cold Case Files"

Former CBS newsman Bill Kurtis is the host and executive producer for the first season of this unscripted A&E Network series that shows how timing, persistence and high-tech police work can combine to apprehend perpetrators who have managed to evade detection and capture for decades.

"Movie: Rear Window"

One of director Alfred Hitchcock's most memorable films, this 1954 classic manipulates the feelings of isolation and helplessness into ideal suspense. James Stewart stars as a photographer restricted to a wheelchair from a broken leg, who keeps an eye on his neighbors from his apartment. He comes to believe that one of them (Raymond Burr) is a murderer. Grace Kelly and Thelma Ritter also appear.

"Bachelor in Paradise" (ABC — season premiere, Aug. 16)

Probably because a new season of this popular "Bachelor" spinoff last aired in summer 2019, Season 7 — which is set at a resort in Mexico — already has attracted even more attention than usual, as well as attendant spoilers. Early reports suggest that as many as 32 contestants will appear in this season. Among the featured couples are said to be Noah Erb and Abigail Herlinger, Brendan Morais and Natasha Parker, Tammy Ly and Thomas Jacobs, Demi Burnett and Kenny Braasch, and Ivan Hall and Jessenia Cruz.

Guess Who?

I am an actress born in New York on December 4, 1964. My breakout role in a film about a floundering attorney stuck in rural America won me an Academy Award. I've had many other film credits, including playing an aunt to a popular web-slinging superhero.

"Turner & Hooch" (July 21) A continuation of the 1989 buddy-cop comedy of the same name, this comedy series casts Josh Peck ("The Wackness") in the role of police detective Scott Turner, son of the detective portrayed by Tom Hanks in the film, who inherits an unruly dog who could turn out to be the partner he needs. Carra Patterson and Anthony Ruivivar also star. (ORIGINAL)

"Playing With Sharks: The Valerie Taylor Story" (July 23) From National Geographic comes this 2021 documentary that follows legendary filmmaker and conservationist Valerie Taylor as she dives with sharks and endeavors to debunk many of the myths that are at the root of people's fears of the creature. Which is somewhat ironic given that Taylor was one of the camera operators on the film most responsible for shark dread — "Jaws."

Questions:

"Stuntman" (July 23)

Hollywood stuntman Eddie Braun is in the spotlight in this 2018 documentary from director Kurt Mattila ("Lies and Alibis"), which follows him as he prepares for the most dangerous stunt in cinematic history, the infamous Snake River Canyon rocket jump unsuccessfully attempted in 1974 by Evel Knievel, his childhood idol.

"Ice Age: The Meltdown" (July 23)

A woolly mammoth, a sloth and a tiger (voices of Ray Romano, John Leguizamo and Denis Leary) learn their prehistoric home is about to be flooded, prompting them to try to warn their animal friends and get them to safety. Complicating things are another woolly mammoth (voice of Queen Latifah) and more lethal creatures suddenly defrosted by the climate change.
