Reunited singers are the 'Queens' of new ABC drama

Television is bringing another band back together ... or, more precisely, another female singing group.

Not long after Peacock's "Girls5eva" reunited former vocal partners, so does ABC's drama series "Queens," premiering Tuesday, Oct. 19. Music stars Brandy and Eve play, along with Naturi Naughton ("Power") and Nadine Velazquez ("Flight"), members of a '90s hip-hop group who try to recapture their shared former fame. Each woman walks a different path now, though, making their reunion bid shaky. Taylor Sele portrays their manager, who also handles the currently popular Lil Muffin (Pepi Sonuga).

"I think our show is about sisterhood and family," says "Queens" creator and executive producer Zahir McGhee. "You fight with your family, and these are people that have been brought back together after a long period of time. There's always going to be arguments. There's always going to be a hierarchy that exists, and shifting, but we do want to be on the friendship more than rivalry or bickering or backstabbing."

Since its main characters' fame hails from the '90s, "Queens" invokes that decade significantly. "We've lived that time," ex-"The Talk" co-host Eve reasons. "We come from that time, so it's important for us, and there definitely will be moments from those times. When people listen to the music, when they see our outfits, when they see our hair, everything ... we want them to be transported back to that moment. It's all about the authenticity."

For Brandy, who previously had a healthy series run with the sitcom "Moesha," it's also all about getting to fulfill her major career aims. "You're born with this passion," she reflects, "and you go after the things that you dream about. I've always wanted to sing. I've always wanted to inspire people, and I just felt that that was my purpose, so I went after it. And this show 'Queens,' is such a blessing, because I get to do everything that I love to do all in one show, with amazing people. I'm just so excited. I can't even believe this is happening."

Swizz Beatz serves as executive music producer of "Queens," and his mission is to make the show's soundtrack as vital as the drama – with each of those elements enhancing the other.

"It's almost like reliving your younger life again," he maintains. "I actually was doing this in the '90s, so to come back and do it in 2021, it just feels good. It feels natural. And being that it's a show, I get to have extra fun. I don't have to be so serious with the music. We can put risky things in there and make the characters come out even more, so it's been a fun journey."

"The Harder They Fall" (Netflix — movie premiere, Nov. 3)

From director Jeymes Samuel ("They Die by Dawn") comes this original Western that follows Nat Love (Jonathan Majors, "Lovecraft Country"), an outlaw who reunites with his old gang when he learns the man (Idris Elba, "Luther") who killed his parents two decades ago is being released from prison. Regina King, Zazie Beetz, LaKeith Stanfield, and Delroy Lindo also star.

What's Available NOW On

"Castle"

The streaming service comes forth with all eight seasons of this 2009-16 ABC crime dramedy about a blocked mystery novelist (Nathan Fillion) who teams with a homicide detective (Stana Katic) as they solve unusual crimes in New York City. Jon Huertas, Seamus Dever, Tamala Jones and Susan Sullivan are also in the cast.

"Swamp People"

It's open season on alligators each September in the Atchafalaya River Basin of Louisiana, and this series from History follows the men and women who earn much of their income for the year from this high-risk activity. It also reveals the social life of the swamp and how these folks earn their living the other 11 months of the year.

"Nightwatch"

From "Law & Order" and "FBI" franchise mentor Dick Wolf comes this nonfiction series that chronicles the sacrifice and heroic work of skilled first responders on the front lines of one of the country's most dynamic agencies — the New Orleans EMS — as they respond to everything from medical emergencies to on the street violence to natural disasters.

"The Next Thing You Eat"

From chef David Chang and Academy Award-winning filmmaker Morgan Neville ("Road Runner: A Film About Anthony Bourdain") comes this six-episode docuseries that explores how the seismic changes around us will affect how we eat, Including everything from lab-grown fish and insect farms to robots and artificial intelligence. In Focus

"The Oratorio" (PBS — documentary premiere, Nov. 5)

Academy Award-winning filmmaker Martin Scorsese looks back at a seismic musical moment in 1826 that marked the beginning of a cultural awakening in America. The occasion? A one-night-only performance in St. Patrick's Old Cathedral, Scorsese's home church in the Little Italy section of New York. The presentation marked the arrival of Italian opera in the New World. This documentary presents the backstory to that event, an incredible chronicle that involves Mozart's most celebrated librettist, opera's first acknowledged diva and a freed slave turned hairdresser.

To understand the significance of Menorcan's at the St. Augustine Lighthouse, we must recognize their role in its history. Many lightkeepers were of Menorcan descent, including Juan Andreu, the first lighthouse keeper in the newly lit St. Augustine Lighthouse, Juan Carrera, Joseph Andreu, Maria Andreu, and Siladonio Pellicer. These individuals, whose ancestors traveled to New Smyrna to work as indentured servants, were instrumental in the rise of Menorcan culture in St. Augustine, Perhaps the most notable of Menorcan Lighthouse Keepers was Maria de los Delores Menstre Andreu, a woman of many firsts. After her husband Juan's tragic passing, Maria became the first female lighthouse keeper and Hispanic-American woman to serve in the United States Coast Guard and command a federal shore installation, setting a precedent for Hispanic American women serving in the military. For over 150 years, Maria Andreu's trailblazing experience has inspired generations of women to serve their country.

In Focus

"Dickinson: Season 3" (Apple TV+ — season premiere, Nov. 5)

Season 3 of this original comedy finds Emily (Hailee Steinfeld) in her most productive period as an artist, though that is threatened by the Civil War and an equally divisive battle within her own family. Guest stars this round include Ziwe, Billy Eichner and Chloe Fineman, joining returning regulars Toby Huss, Adrian Blake and Jane Krakowski.

playerprofile Lawrence takes his lumps early in rookie campaign

He came to the NFL as one of the most vaunted quarterbacks in recent memory but Trevor Lawrence has certainly taken his lumps.

Indeed, three games into his rookie campaign with the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Clemson product and top overall pick in the 2021 Draft has looked every bit like the green signal caller he is, and a major reason why the Jags were winless in September.

In the season's first month, Lawrence completed 64 of 118 passes (a 54.2 percent rate) for 669 yards with five touchdowns and seven interceptions, making him only the fifth rookie QB in history to throw multiple picks in his first three games. He's in good company, though, as two of those are Hall of Famers - Troy Aikman (1989) and Peyton Manning (1998). And he has shown much reason for hope.

One encouraging sign is that he's not afraid to take chances, as evidenced by a flea flicker he attempted in Week 3 against the Arizona Cardinals that wound up in the hands of Cards' defensive back Byron Murphy, who returned it 29 yards for a touchdown. The play was undoubtedly ugly but it was also served as an encouraging indicator of the rookie's desire to throw downfield and test the limits of what he can get away with in the NFL. Given the less-than-stellar supporting cast surrounding him, his lackluster showing really isn't surprising.

Lawrence and the Jaguars can be seen in action the morning of Sunday, Oct. 17, when they play the Miami Dolphins at London's Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in a game airing on CBS.

BY GEORGE DICKIE

tastytv BY GEORGE DICKIE Foodie TV: Culinary series you can stream this week

It stands to reason that with the a windo explosion in streaming services would come a similar proliferation of culinary content. And indeed, that has been the case.

At no time has there been more foodie shows, films and documentaries out there for your consumption, thus rendering cable and broadcast mainstays such as Food Network, Cooking Channel and PBS mere slices of an ever-growing culinary programming pie (pardon the pun). And it's not just on Netflix, Amazon and Hulu but all across the web. The following are a few of the newest offerings.

"The Next Thing You Eat" (premieres Thursday, Oct. 21, on Hulu): Chef David Chang is your host of this sixepisode documentary series from filmmaker Morgan Neville that explores the cataclysmic changes happening all around us that affect the way we'll eat in the future. Chang and a diverse cast of characters look at what's ahead, ranging from burger-flipping robots and artificial intelligence making decisions to insect farms and lab-grown fish.

"Stanley Tucci: Searching for Italy" (Available now, HBO Max): The Oscarnominated actor (who, incidentally, won an Emmy for this show) acts as tour guide in this CNN original series that follows him as he traverses one of the world's great food countries and takes in the secrets and delights of its regional cuisines. He also explores how Italian cooking offers a window into Italy's rich history and culture.

"Baking Impossible" (Available now, Netflix): This recently premiered competition series pairs creative and innovative bakers with crack engineers to make creations that not only challenge the imagination, but are delicious and can withstand engineering stress tests. Think: an edible boat that floats or an edible skyscraper that can remain intact during a simulated quake.

"Foodie Road Trip With Skye Estroff" (Available now, Plex): Small towns are where it's at – at least in the view of food expert and host Estroff, who brings viewers to some of the most revered foodie towns across the country to discover what makes their restaurants unique and to hear their stories.

"Tiny Food Fight" (Available now, discovery+): As the title suggests, this competition series tasks contestants with making dishes such as pancakes and sandwiches on a smaller scale with themes ranging from fair foods and birthday parties to tiny version of food from around the world. Comedian and social media star Mamrie Hart is the host.

"The Great British Baking Show: Season 9" (Available now, Netflix): The new season brings in a fresh crop of amateur bakers to compete in a series of challenges in the hopes of impressing judges Paul Hollywood and Prue Leith.

"Movie: Lansky"

Harvey Keitel ("Bugsy") does solid work in director Eytan Rockaway's ("Angel of Mine") otherwise lackluster 2021 biographical drama in which he stars as the notorious gangster, who late in his life tells his story to the broke writer (Sam Worthington, "Avatar") penning his biography. John Magaro, AnnaSophia Robb, Minka Kelly and David Elliott are also in the cast.

"Movie: Akilla's Escape"

From Canada comes this 2020 crime drama about a drug dealer who finds his moral code challenged when he interrupts an armed robbery and captures one of the perps, a 15-year-old gang member. Saul Williams, Thamela Mpumlwana, Donisha Claire Prendergast and Vic Mensa head the cast for director Charles Officer ("Unarmed Verses").

"Movie: Wanderlust"

Jennifer Aniston and Paul Rudd star in this racy, amusing 2012 comedy from a master of that combination, producer Judd Apatow. The stars play a suddenly incomeless Manhattan couple who hit the road to visit relatives and, en route, come across a commune where the residents preach a free lifestyle ... for which clothing is not required. Alan Alda, Malin Akerman and Justin Theroux co-star.

"Movie: Cowboys & Aliens"

The title of director Jon Favreau's graphicnovel-inspired 2011 merging of sci-fi and Western leaves little doubt as to the groups that clash in it. A stranger (Daniel Craig) sporting a strange wristband may prove to be the salvation of a town ruled by a tyrant (Harrison Ford) and invaded by unwelcome, otherworldly visitors. The cast also includes Olivia Wilde, Sam Rockwell and Keith Carradine.

In Focus

The 55th Annual CMA Awards (ABC — new special, Nov. 10)

Broadcast from Nashville, Tenn., this three-hour special covers annual ceremonies honoring outstanding achievements in the country music industry between July 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021. Among this year's field of nominees, Eric Church and Chris Stapleton sit at the top of the heap with five nominations apiece. Both are up for Entertainer of the Year, a category in which they'll compete with Luke Combs, Miranda Lambert and Carrie Underwood.

"Disney's Magic Bake-Off" (Oct. 20)

Dara Reneé ("High School Musical: The Musical: The Series") and Issac Ryan Brown ("Raven's Home") host this reality competition series that combines the fun of baking and the impressive ingenuity of several young pastry chefs, who divide into three teams of two and race against the clock to create cakes inspired by a classic Walt Disney TV or movie offering.

"The Wild Life of Dr. Ole" (Oct. 20)

From National Geographic comes this unscripted series that follows Dr. Ole Alcumbrac, owner and operator of White Mountain Animal Hospital, who cares for everything from cats and dogs to exotics and large animals while also enjoying a very active life outside his Pinetop, Ariz., clinic.

"Thumbelina" (Oct. 22)

Directors Don Bluth and Gary Goldman bring Hans Christian Andersen's classic fairy tale to life in this 1994 animated story of the tiny heroine who must evade moles, beetles and other potential predators before she can proceed with her courtship of her dear Prince Cornelius. Jodi Benson, June Foray, Kenneth Mars and Charo are among those in the voice cast.

APOLLO: BACK TO THE MOON

"Apollo: Back to the Moon" (Available now)

From France and director Francois Pomes ("Exomars, the Hunt for Life") comes this two-part documentary that recounts the epic Apollo 11 mission to the moon in 1969 by detailing the journey of the men — and occasionally the women — who took part in or aided the project.
