cover story BY JAY BOBBIN Melissa Joan Hart stars in "Mistletoe in Montana" Friday on Lifetime.

Melissa Joan Hart offers 'Mistletoe in Montana'

Melissa Joan Hart knows what it's like to direct other actors, so she doesn't mind being directed by one ... especially if the person is a close friend.

Television's former "Sabrina, the Teenage Witch" is guided by "Life Goes On" and "ER" alum Kellie Martin in "Mistletoe in Montana," a Lifetime movie that debuts Friday, Dec. 17. Also an executive producer of the film along with her mother Paula, Hart plays the operator of a ranch resort that a single father (Duane Henry, "NCIS") visits with his children at holiday time, possibly resulting in romance. Jamey Sheridan ("Law & Order: Criminal Intent") also stars as the Hart character's father.

"This movie is actually inspired by my cousin's true-life experience going to a dude ranch," Hart explains. "She met a wrangler and fell in love, so this is the flip-flop of that. We were at her wedding in Wyoming last year, and my mother and I were on horseback ... and I said, 'This would make a great movie.' And she said, 'Well, do you want to be the wrangler or the guest?' And I was like, 'I wanna be the wrangler, 'cause I wanna really learn how to be a cowgirl.'"

Hart drew upon a summer of childhood horse-riding lessons, but she says that while making the movie on location, "I rode as many horses as I could for as long as I could, and learned about different rein techniques and different ways to respond to a horse and how horses respond to you. There were some lessons I went away for and told my husband, 'I'll see you in three hours, if you're lucky. I might not make it back.' "

Though director Martin starred in 2019's "Christmas in Montana," that actually was filmed in Canada, but she's familiar with Montana as her husband's home state. After directing a couple of her "Mystery Woman" capers, she notes her latest turn in that seat was "super-challenging. There's not a lot of film crew based in Montana, and this particular summer because of the pandemic, a lot of people were like, 'I want to get away where there are no people. Let's go to Montana!' It was surprisingly difficult to shoot there this summer.

"That being said," adds Martin,
"I know Montana so well that I do feel I brought some knowledge about what it is about. I added shots of snowy owls and elk and all the things that make Montana Montana.
It was nice to be able to shoot there, even though we had to acknowledge in the script that it was unseasonably warm. Which, by the way, does happen. Often, they don't get snow there until after Christmas."

DISCOVER FLORIDA'S FIRST LIGHTHOUSE

In 1875, Major William A. Harn became Head Keeper of the St. Augustine Lighthouse. Keeper Harn and his wife Kate, along with their daughters, became the first residents of the Keepers' House. Life at a light station was busy, and everyone would help tend to the light and grounds. One aspect of this was to greet and entertain visitors. The Harn children loved hearing stories from the outside world as Kate served lemonade on the porch of the Keepers' House.

The Harn family lived and worked at the light station from 1876 until 1889. After William's passing, Kate served as the Second Assistant before moving the family into town and later returning home to Maine. The photograph above was taken at the Harn family home in Maine during the 1920s. Among those pictured are Kate and five of her six daughters.

Kupp having a season for the ages for playoff-minded Rams

To say Cooper Kupp is having a monster season would be gross understatement. It's positively historic.

Indeed, the Los Angeles Rams' fifth-year wide receiver has rolled up numbers through his first 10 games that place his 2021 campaign among the NFL's all-time greats.

Through mid-November, the 6-feet-2-inch third round pick out of Eastern Washington was leading the league in the three major receiving categories – receptions with 85, yards with 1,141 and receiving touchdowns with 10. He was also about to eclipse his own personal full-season marks of 94, 1,161 and 10.

Were he to maintain this pace, he'd join only Hall of Famers Lance Alworth (1966) and Jerry Rice (1990) was well as Sterling Sharpe (1992) and Steve Smith (2005) as wideouts to pull off the receiving hat trick. And if he were to up his average of 114.1 yards per game over the remaining seven regular season games, he'd threaten the all-time single season mark of 1,964 yards set in 2012 by Calvin Johnson, also a Hall of Famer.

Of course, records are always nice but there is immediate, bigger business at hand. The Rams are fighting with the Arizona Cardinals for first place in the NFC West and a possible first round bye in the playoffs. W's are increasingly important this time of year and Kupp and the Rams need to keep their eyes on the team prize if they want a shot at a Super Bowl run.

Kupp and the Rams can be seen in action Monday, Dec. 13, when they have a showdown on enemy turf with the Cardinals in a game airing on ESPN and ABC.

Michael Symon up for a 'Throwdown' in Food Network competition series

Michael Symon loves to teach, compete and of course, cook and he displays all three in a competition series upcoming on Food Network.

In "Throwdown With Michael Symon," a four-episode series premiering which everybody else loves ...," he adds with a double episode on Tuesday, Dec. 14, the chef, restaurateur and cookbook author ventures onto the home turf of top New York chefs and challenges them to a – well, see the title – in which he takes on that chef's signature dish and creates his own interpretation of it.

The twist here is that the chef in question doesn't know this is a competition, only that they'll be filming a Food Network special. Then Symon makes his way through the crowd and throws down his figurative gauntlet. A pair of special guest judges blindly evaluates the final product and declares a winner.

So while the chef has the home crowd and the signature dish to their advantage, Symon has the element of surprise on his side.

"It's my kind of favorite show," explains Symon, who just released his new cookbook "Fix It With Food: Every Meal Easy," "where for me I get to be a chef, which I love; there's a lot of just like natural teaching moments in the show, which I love; we get to feature basically two great chefs/restaurateurs per episode, so maybe people get to discover some new places.

"And then it ends in competition, with a laugh. "So I think it's one of those few shows that hits on all those elements."

Tuesday's opener takes Symon first to Brooklyn's Pig Beach to throwdown against chef Matt Abdoo and his signature burger. Then in the second, he shows up at the downtown Manhattan Eastern European eatery Tzarevna to challenge owners Ricky and Mariia Dolinsky in making their khachapuri, a cheesy stuffed bread from the nation of Georgia.

For Symon, the decadent dish required a substantial learning curve.

"That was a fun one for me," he says, "because it's something that I've never made, khachapuri. So you kind of go to a restaurant and learn the history of the dish and the different varieties of it and what someone who specializes in Georgia cuisine, what they think makes it special and unique. It was a great history lesson and learning experience for me and to taste all the different varieties was pretty awesome."
