Camryn Manheim helps maintain 'Law & Order' in original series' revival

When Camryn Manheim says that joining the revival of "Law & Order" brings her "full circle," she really means it.

The Emmy winner for "The Practice" had several of her earliest television roles – three different ones – as a guest star on executive producer Dick Wolf's long-running, franchise-spawning drama series. She returns to it as a regular for what NBC is calling its 21st season starting Thursday, Feb. 24, reinforcing Wolf's "Chicago"-show and "FBI" tradition by opening an all-"Law & Order" night that also includes the "Special Victims Unit" and "Organized Crime" spinoffs.

Merging returning cast members and new additions, "Law & Order" now casts Manheim as Lt. Kate Dixon, the boss of the New York police detectives played by returnee Anthony Anderson (fresh off "black-ish") and "Burn Notice" alum Jeffrey Donovan. Sam Waterston reprises his role as District Attorney Jack McCoy, and Hugh Dancy ("Hannibal") and Odelya Halevi ("Good Trouble") also are new to the series as prosecutors.

"I'd just gotten my master's degree from New York University," the friendly Manheim recalls, "and like every New York actor, it was my dream to get a guest shot on 'Law & Order.' I did a lot of Off-Broadway theater, and everyone would write in their program bio who they wanted to thank ... and at the end, they would write how many times they'd appeared on 'Law & Order.' For several years, I couldn't say that, and it was probably one of my proudest moments when I could add, '"Law & Order": One episode.' And then, 'Two episodes.' And then, 'Three episodes.' "

Now, Manheim says, "I'm not going to lie, I'm still in a little bit of shock. I'm moving from Los Angeles to New York, and I would not have done it for any other show. "Law & Order" has such a special place in my heart, and it's not just me, but all of New York. Actors dream to be on it, crew members' lives were made by it, and the city was vitalized by it. It's very profound for me."

Manheim's Dixon effectively is the successor to Lt. Anita Van Buren, played through most of the original show's run by S. Epatha Merkerson (now on NBC's and producer Wolf's "Chicago Med").

"I think it takes a certain kind of woman to hold down this fort and make sure that everything works in tandem," Manheim notes, reasoning that Dixon "has to keep the D.A.'s office happy, she has to keep the police chief happy, and she has to get her detectives to do the work: And I think that with how bossy I am in general, they sensed that I could bring her to life."

In 1875, Major William A. Harn became Head Keeper of the St. Augustine Lighthouse. Keeper Harn and his wife Kate, along with their daughters, became the first residents of the Keepers' House. Life at a light station was busy, and everyone would help tend to the light and grounds. One aspect of this was to greet and entertain visitors. The Harn children loved hearing stories from the outside world as Kate served lemonade on the porch of the Keepers' House.

The Harn family lived and worked at the light station from 1876 until 1889. After William's passing, Kate served as the Second Assistant before moving the family into town and later returning home to Maine. The photograph above was taken at the Harn family home in Maine during the 1920s. Among those pictured are Kate and five of her six daughters.

"The Thing About Pam" (NBC — series premiere, March 8)

Renee Zellweger makes her network television debut in the title role of this new limited series, on which she also serves as an executive producer. The story chronicles the true-crime saga of Betsy Faria's (Katy Mixon, "American Housewife") brutal 2011 murder, a crime for which her husband, Russ (Glenn Fleshler), initially was convicted. That conviction eventually was overturned, however, as a chain of events exposed a diabolical scheme involving a criminal, Pam Hupp (Zellweger). Josh Duhamel, Judy Greer and Sean Bridgers also star.

In the category of NBA MVP candidates for 2021-22, we present for your consideration DeMar DeRozan.

Indeed, the veteran shooting guard is having one of the best statistical seasons of his 13-year pro career in his first season with the Chicago Bulls, who through the season's first three months he has helped lead to the best record in the Eastern Conference.

As of early February, the 32-year-old native of Compton, Calif., was sixth in the league in scoring with 26.4 points per game, to go with per-game averages of five assists and five rebounds and a blistering 50.2 percent field goal percentage.

Furthermore, he's become the go-to guy and a vocal leader on a team that figures to go far in the postseason. People like his former coach in his three seasons with the San Antonio Spurs, Gregg Popovich, have sat up and taken notice.

"He's got great character, and he wanted to get better," Popovich said of his former shooting guard. "And he did." DeRozan didn't exactly come out of nowhere. He's always been a prolific scorer with an impressive resume from his years with the Toronto Raptors, Spurs and Bulls, including five All-Star Game selections, an Olympic gold medal, a Pac-10 Tournament MVP trophy and his No. 10 jersey retired by his alma mater, USC.

DeRozan leading Bulls to

Sunday, Feb. 20, he'll make his fifth appearance and third as a starter alongside Joel Embiid, Kevin Durant, Giannis Antetokounmpo and Trae Young as his Eastern Conference squad meets the West in the 2022 NBA All-Star Game, airing on TNT from Rocket Mortgage FieldHouse in Cleveland.

tastyt∨ BY GEORGE DICKIE Comfort foods are the word on Food Network

It's late February and if you're like a lot of Americans, you've been dieting since the calendar turned to 2022.

So after nearly two months of keeping yourself on the straight and narrow, you're entitled to a cheat day. And that comes Saturday, Feb. 26, on Food Network, when the cablenet offers up a morning full of programming devoted to comfort foods.

It begins bright and early with "Barefoot Contessa: Back to Basics," in which Ina Garten shows how to prepare an easy dinner consisting of rigatoni with sausage and fennel, roast chicken cobb salad, risotto and an iced tea. Not a bad way to start.

She follows that up on "Barefoot Contessa" by revisiting flavors from her past and updating them, skewing up a split pea soup with crispy kielbasa, a lamb stew with spring vegetables and fresh raspberry mini corn muffins. Hungry yet?

Also that morning on "The Kitchen," a celebration of comfort foods is in progress as Katie Lee prepares her luscious lobster pot pie and Jeff Mauro makes his melting sweet potatoes. Also on the menu is a barbecue braised brisket with sweet potato and carrot mash. Yum.

Speaking of celebrating, Ree Drummond is doing a little of her own in the first of back-to-back episodes of "The Pioneer Woman." In the first, she pays tribute to the foods from her grandma's house by making retro Salisbury steak in gravy, skillet scalloped potatoes and green beans, plus a dessert of apple crisp. Then in the second show, she recruits help from the ranch to prepare a Tuscan chicken soup, a casserole with cheesy greens, fried crispy potato balls and an easy Neapolitan cake. Who can resist?

In late morning, the crew of "The Kitchen" is back, this time adapting their childhood favorites for the adult palate. This includes a mortadella and fig pizza bagel and a Chicago-style deep dish pizza bagel from Jeff Mauro, Alex Guarnaschelli putting her own spin on pigs in a blanket by adding pretzels and mustard sauce to the equation, and Geoffrey Zakarian topping things off with a peanut butter and jelly creme brulee. Creativity gone to the next level.

Finally at noon, Mary Berg takes viewers to school on "Mary Makes It Easy," teaching a crash course in French cuisine and taking the mystery out of classic techniques. She then sets about making a croque madame (a sandwich with ham, gruyere cheese and eggs) with caramelized onions, steak frites, a peanut butter and jelly mille-feuille (a pastry similar to a Napoleon) and an omelet souffle. Ooh la la!

"Movie: The Good, the Bad and the Ugly"

One of Italian director Sergio Leone's classic "spaghetti Westerns" about the poncho-wearing, man-of-few-words Man With No Name (Clint Eastwood), this lengthy and gritty 1967 saga forces the antihero to team up with two unlikely partners (Lee Van Cleef, Eli Wallach) to find a chest containing vast riches during the Civil War. Composer Ennio Morricone's instrumental theme song became a major chart hit.
