Cover story Business has provided luxury option to dog training and boarding since 2017

Dog professionals is what Jet Set Pets strives to provide to the local community, especially when it comes to offering dog training and premium boarding.

When Julie Marco started the business at its Jacksonville Beach location in September 2017 the idea behind it was fairly simple.

She was a person interested in dog sports and dog behavior and thought that she could provide a much needed service to dog owners locally.

As she thought about it further, she realized that although there were other dog training and boarding places around town, she wanted to find something that would separate Jet Set Pets apart from the rest.

"They (dog owners) want compassion for their needs, someone to listen to their concerns and a place for their dog to have a home away from home," Marco said.

She found just that by not only offering a training and boarding solution, but by offering much more than that in the form of a luxury outlet for dogs in the community.

The luxury approach takes into account not just the dogs being cared for but also the viewpoint of a dog owner.

"The mission was to be successful in the concept and evolution of it," Marco said. "We want dogs to be treated in boarding with the same standards as at home. The dog's health, safety and well-being comes first."

Jet Set Pets offers premier training and luxury boarding for dogs in the community.

According to Marco, this approach is something that dog owners appreciate. Especially, when boarding a pet, it is important for owners to feel the sense of relief that comes with knowing their dogs are in good hands.

"The dogs always come first," Marco said.

In the five-plus years since Jet Set Pets opened its doors, not only has it seen an increase in the number of clients it sees, but it is also up to 26 employees that make up its staff.

The Jet Set Pets staff shares Marco's enthusiasm and passion for dogs and that is reflective in how they interact and handle the dogs.

As a result, it has created a fun and welcoming atmosphere that she takes a lot of pride in.

"We have a dog-loving, human-welcoming, supportive and understanding culture for not only clients but also our employees," Marco said. "I want customers to feel comfortable leaving their dog for any length of time and at any age, breed or personality."

According to Marco, dogs, just like people, are different in many ways and it is all about discovering what works in that specific case when finding out the best way to approach a situation.

She believes that customers can get a sense of that understanding as soon as they bring in their dog through the doors of the Jet Set Pets facility located at 949 12th Avenue S. in Jacksonville Beach.

tasty tv Ballpark food 2023 - A big step up from peanuts and Crackerjack

Opening Day of the baseball season arrives this Thursday, March 30, signaling the official beginning of spring as well as the start of some pretty fine dining at ballparks across the country.

For the discriminating foodie who is planning on attending a game, they'll find a veritable cornucopia of dining options, ranging from lobster rolls, filet mignon sliders and sushi to more traditional fare like hot dogs, burgers and pizza. And many parks have added new eateries, dishes and drinks for this year so if you can't find anything to your liking, you're just not trying.

Certainly Minute Maid Park, where the Houston Astros will open their 2023 campaign against the Chicago White Sox in a game airing on ESPN, has a few unusual items. One newcomer is the Grande Papas Nachos fries, which are topped with beef carnitas, cheddar cheese, jalapenos, crema and elote, which is grilled Mexican street corn. Delicioso.

If you're in Los Angeles for the Dodgers' home opener against the Arizona Diamondbacks, try Dodger Stadium's new marriage of the classic helmet bowl to the California roll called – wait for it – the California Roll Bowl. This consists of imitation crab, sriracha aioli, edamame, carrots and cucumbers all served up over a bed of sushi rice, and is certainly not your father's ballpark food.

Also for the health-conscious is the Red Curry Bowl at Oakland Coliseum, where the A's open the season against the L.A. Angels. This Thai-inspired creation is a tasty mix of grilled chicken, bell peppers and egg noodles that has gotten rave reviews from those who have previewed it. So you might want to try it, too.

Conversely, on the more caloric side is the Big Red Machine Burger at Cincinnati's Great American Ballpark, where the Reds play the Pittsburgh Pirates. It's a beef patty and smoked sausage topped with sauerkraut, beer cheese and crushed potato chips and served on a pretzel bun. Pace yourself for this is one big sandwich.

Meat lovers will also go in for the Ropa Vieja Bowl at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Fla., where the Tampa Bay Rays get going for '23 against the Detroit Tigers. It's a slow-roasted brisket paired with white rice, plantains, sauteed peppers and onions. What's not to like?

And if you're at Seattle's Safeco Field, where the Mariners open '23 against the Cleveland Guardians, why not quench your thirst with an adult beverage? One is the unquestionably unusual Buzz Margarita, a concoction of Mezcal, szechuan buttons and edible flowers topped with toasted grasshoppers. If you're trying to cut down on your arthropod intake, you can opt for the Magenta Mojo cocktail, a mix of grapefruit, rose wine and hibiscus. Or you can just order a beer.
