Fandom made 'Super': CBS premieres new competition series honoring music fans After decades of competitive reality shows committed to finding the most talented singers, dancers, performers and the like, CBS launches an unscripted series dedicated to the fans — well, to the "superfans," to be exact. Honoring the most loyal of six celebrities' fan bases, the network's new competition series tests a group of contestants' knowledge in exchange for a chance to meet their idols up close and personal. Originally scheduled to arrive in June, "Superfan" premieres Wednesday, Aug. 9, on CBS, the CBS app and Paramount+.

Created by executive producers Keltie Knight ("Footloose," 2011) and Jodi Roth ("Inappropriate Jeff," 2014), "Superfan" makes use of a classic game show model — think BBC's "Mastermind," if you've seen it — testing players on a smattering of facts about the musician they all share a love for. Each week, beginning with LL Cool J ("NCIS: Los Angeles"), one music star is welcomed to perform and look on as their biggest fans settle the No.1-fan question once and for all.

The series has a six-episode freshman season, and it is hosted by Canadian TV personality Knight and Canadian-American former NFL wide receiver Nate Burleson ("The NFL Today"). It features one new musical celebrity per episode, and following LL Cool J's inaugural episode, the weekly guests of honor include: Canadian country music legend Shania Twain ("That Don't Impress Me Much," 1997); Cuban-American pop sensation Gloria Estefan ("Rhythm Is Gonna Get You," 1987); Alabama-born country foursome Little Big Town ("Pontoon," 2012); rapper and Miami native Pitbull ("I Know You Want Me," 2009); and Tennesseean singer/songwriter Kelsea Ballerini ("Miss Me More," 2017).

As the artist's fans compete across several rounds to figure out who will come out as the one and only "superfan," they each get the opportunity to interact with their favorite artist, thus making their music fandom dreams come true just by taking part. By the end of each episode, the artist in the spotlight will crown their No. 1 fan and present to them a unique set of prizes.

While discussing his excitement about co-hosting the new show, Burleson stated that "Superfan" "perfectly captures the energy of concert vibes and competition," adding that "as a host, I get to meet music icons and watch everyday fans compete for a dream prize."

As far as the at-home audience's interaction with the fun goes, Burleson notes, "You will dance, laugh and even cry by the end of each episode, but more importantly, you'll walk away a superfan yourself."

And Burleson isn't the only person delighted to be taking the game show genre to new heights; creators Knight and Roth also expressed their own love for the series in the CBS news release.

"We felt like it was time that fan bases across all genres of music get the love and recognition they deserve," the pair said. "Superfan' gives celebrated musical artists a chance to honor their fans by engaging with them one-on-one and surprising them with once-in-a-lifetime prize packages. It's a feel-good show that everyone will enjoy."

What's Available NOW On

"Only Murders in the Building: Season 3"

Season three finds Charles, Oliver and Mabel (played by Steve Martin, Martin Short and Selena Gomez) investigating a murder behind the scenes of a Broadway show. Ben Glenroy (Paul Rudd) is a Hollywood action star whose Broadway debut is cut short by his untimely death. Aided by co-star Loretta Durkin (Meryl Streep), the trio embarks on their toughest case yet, all while director Oliver desperately attempts to put his show back together.

"Movie: Bait"

Martin Ward (Edward Rowe) is a cove fisherman, without a boat. His brother Steven (Giles King) has re-purposed their father's vessel as a tourist tripper, driving a wedge between the brothers. With their childhood home now a get-away for London money, Martin is displaced to the estate above the picturesque harbor. As his struggle to restore the family to their traditional place creates increasing friction with tourists and locals alike, a tragedy at the heart of the family changes his world.

"Movie: Enys Men"

A wildlife volunteer on an uninhabited island off the British coast descends into a terrifying madness that challenges her grip on reality and pushes her into a living nightmare. Evoking the feeling of discovering a reel of never-before-seen celluloid unspooling in a haunted movie palace, this horror film from Mark Jenkin stars Mary Woodvine, Edward Rowe, John Woodvine, Flo Crowe and Joe Gray.

"Movie: Sam & Kate"

When Sam (Jake Hoffman) returns to his small town to care for his ailing father (Dustin Hoffman), he soon finds himself falling for a local woman, Kate (Schuyler Fisk). Simultaneously, his father begins finding love with Kate's mother (Sissy Spacek). But both couples must confront their past in order to make their new love work for the future.

UNTOLD OHNNY FOOTBALL

"Documentary: Mark Cavendish: Never Enough"

With exclusive access to Mark, his wife Peta, his team-mates, and his coaches, the film charts the rise, fall and resurrection of a genuine sporting great and the wiliest, most effective, and most exciting cyclist ever as he works to break the record for most stage wins ever in the history of the Tour de France.

"Untold: Johnny Football"

This critically acclaimed docuseries returns with Volume 3, a four-week summer event that pulls back the curtain on tales from the wide (and wild) world of sports. This installment looks at Johnny Manziel, who, in 2012, was the brightest star in all of sports as an undersized freshman quarterback at unheralded Texas A&M. Dubbed "Johnny Football," the magnetic football player captured the nation's attention and initially relished his alter ego, but eventually Manziel rejected his newfound fame and suddenly lost his way. With astonishing candor, Manziel and those closest to him details what happened behind the scenes.

A fictionalized retelling of events, this scripted limited series explores some of the origins and aftermath of the opioid crisis in America, highlighting the stories of the perpetrators, victims, and truth-seekers whose lives are forever altered by the invention of OxyContin. An examination of crime, accountability, and the systems that have repeatedly failed hundreds of thousands of Americans, the series is based on the book "Pain Killer" by Barry Meier and the New Yorker Magazine article "The Family That Built the Empire of Pain" by Patrick Radden Keefe. Uzo Aduba, Matthew Broderick, Taylor Kitsch, Dina Shihabi, West Duchovny and John Rothman star.

"Movie: Heart of Stone"

Secret Agent Rachel Stone (Gal Gadot) is not your average operative — Stone is a member of an elusive and mysterious group of elite spies known as the Charter. The most highly trained agents of all, with no political leanings and no national allegiances, the Charter work together to keep peace in a turbulent world. To achieve their lofty aims, those agents rely on a one-of-a-kind asset called the Heart, the world's most advanced and powerful AI. When a hacker sets out to take control of the Heart and take over the world, it's up to Agent Stone to stop them before it's too late. Jamie Dornan, Alia Bhatt, Sophie Okonedo, Jing Lusi and Paul Ready also star.

Dinner for two: 'Love at First Bite' tosses singles into culinary bootcamp

Premiering with a larger-than-life, 90-minute episode, "Worst Cooks in America: Love at First Bite" chomps down on Food Network, Sunday, Aug. 6.

The eight-episode season brings chefs Anne Burrell ("Beat Bobby Flay") and Jeff Mauro ("The Kitchen") to the kitchen, asking them each to lead a team of fun-loving singles – all self-proclaimed "kitchen disasters" – through a relentless and life-changing culinary boot camp. As Burrell and Mauro teach the contestants the skills required to master the kitchen once and for all, they hope to turn them, as Food Network says, from "cooking duds into kitchen studs."

In its description for the series, Food Network explains: "The recruits not only learn how to make date-friendly dishes like sushi, spicy wontons and classic French pastries, they also go head-to-head in romantic dating-inspired challenges like the Cupid Games, the Bagel-orette and the Inferno Zone. In the end, only the most improved recruit left standing is awarded a $25,000 grand prize, bragging rights for their mentor and the ability to add "great cook" to their dating profile.

The network continued with a deep dive into the season's first episode, dishing out some juicy details: "Before picking teams, Anne and Jeff kick off the competition by having the recruits make their signature 'seal the deal' meal to show off their skills, or lack thereof, in the kitchen. Then in the main dish challenge, the teams learn to make duck paired with a fruit sauce. After assessing everyone's skills, Anne and Jeff reveal a unique twist when choosing their teams."

During following episodes, these culinary (and relationship) hopefuls are introduced to some of the classic dishes of Italy, take a lesson on hand-pulling made-from-scratch noodles with chef Victor Huang and compete in a dazzling, Las Vegas-inspired challenge, recreating an over-the-top dish without a recipe.

In the grand finale — a double date of its own, with the two final episodes airing back-to-back on Sunday, Sept. 10 — the two "most improved" chefs put their newfangled know-how to the test as they are asked to serve a three-course, restaurant-quality meal to a panel of expert judges, including chef Hawa Hassan, Christian Petroni ("Food Network Star") and Chris Scott ("Top Chef"). Whoever can serve the most date-worthy meal will go on to win it all.

With twists, turns and romance in abundance, "Worst Cooks in America: Love at First Bite" premieres Sunday, Aug. 6, on Food Network.

"The Jerk" (1979): Under Carl Reiner's direction, Martin – who returns in the third season of "Only Murders in the Building" Tuesday, Aug. 8, on Prime Video – broke into movie stardom in a big way as a homebound simpleton who inadvertently becomes a worldly tycoon.

"Pennies From Heaven" (1981): Many Martin fans were surprised by the relative darkness of this musical, based in a BBC drama and casting him as a Depression-era peddler of tunes, but it's grown a devoted following.

"Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid" (1982): Though it's mainly notable for director Reiner's technical expertise, which involves matching scenes from earlier movies, this film-noir tribute offers a fine Martin as a 1940s-vintage private eve.

STEVE MARTIN MOVIES

as a 1940s-vintage private eye. "All of Me" (1984): Reteaming with director Reiner, Martin does complicated and hilarious work — in tandem with Lily Tomlin — as an attorney who inherits a deceased client's spirit, literally.

"Three Amigos!" (1986): Martin, Chevy Chase and Steve Martin play actors who become a cut-rate "Magnificent Seven" to save oppressed Mexican villagers.

"Roxanne" (1987): This clever update of "Cyrano de Bergerac" casts Martin (who also wrote the screenplay) as a long-nosed fire chief who courts a woman (Daryl Hannah) via one of his team members (Rick Rossovich).

"Planes, Trains and Automobiles" (1987): Relatively few Thanksgiving movies are classics, but John Hughes' comedy pairing Martin and John Candy is one of them.

"Dirty Rotten Scoundrels" (1988): Martin and Michael Caine make a great team as con men who compete over an heiress (Glenne Headly) and her money. "Parenthood" (1989): Less serious than the most recent television series that was based on it, director Ron Howard's tale of family relations features Martin as the head of the clan.

"Movie: The Revenant"

While exploring uncharted wilderness in 1823, legendary frontiersman Hugh Glass (Leonardo DiCaprio in his Oscar-winning role) sustains injuries from a brutal bear attack. When his hunting team leaves him for dead, Glass must utilize his survival skills to find a way back home while avoiding natives on their own hunt. Grief-stricken and fueled by vengeance, Glass treks through the wintry terrain to track down John Fitzgerald (Tom Hardy), the former confidant who betrayed and abandoned him.

"Movie: Red, White & Royal Blue"

Alex Claremont-Diaz (Taylor Zakhar Perez), the son of the first woman President of the United States (Uma Thurman), and Britain's Prince Henry (Nicholas Galitzine) have a lot in common: stunning good looks, undeniable charisma, international popularity... and a total disdain for each other. When their long-running feud comes to a head in a disastrous—and very public—altercation at a royal event, their forced, staged "truce" unexpectedly begins to thaw into sparks neither of them expected.

"All in the Family: Complete Series"

This series, which aired from 1971-1979, follows the working-class Bunker Family in Queens, New York, as they squabble and grapple with the important issues that come up in their everyday lives. Carroll O'Connor, Jean Stapleton, Rob Reiner and Sally Struthers star.

"Movie: 80 For Brady"

Four best friends go on an unforgettable journey to see Tom Brady play in Super Bowl LI. Lily Tomlin, Jane Fonda, Rita Moreno, and Sally Field star in this hilarious true story of friendship, fun, and living life to the fullest, no matter your age.

while public pushback against personnel changes at the classic movie channel was at its peak recently. The concern voiced by TCM devotees – and by prominent filmmakers such as Steven Spielberg, Martin Scorsese and Paul Thomas Anderson – inspired the reinstatement of one of the pivotal staff members who had been scheduled to leave, programming chief Charles "Charlie" Tabesh. Some changes were evident in the immediate wake of the initial cuts, such as the sudden absence of the hosted "outros" that followed many of the movies by TCM, but those are slated to be reinstated over the coming weeks.

Q: How could ESPN let Suzy Kolber go? – Andrea Smith, via e-mail

A: The former "Monday Night Countdown" host was among about 20 personalities dismissed by the sports network several weeks ago, for what a press entertainment EXTBA statement specified were financial reasons and not the affected parties' on-air performances. Kolber had been with ESPN for 27 years, was widely regarded as a trailblazer among female sportscasters, and noted in a tweet that it was "heartbreaking" for her to leave the network.

Fans of hers immediately started speculating on social media that she could turn up at another sports operation, and while nothing definite had happened in that regard as of this writing, we would note that it certainly isn't out of the question given her visibility and experience. As Kolber said herself in that tweet, "Longevity for a woman in this business is something I am especially proud of."

Q: I just started to watch "The Closer" and "Major Crimes." Why do they have the same cast except for the female leads? – Kay Berresford, Negley, Ohio

A: After seven seasons, Kyra Sedgwick decided that she didn't want to continue as the star of "The Closer" — but rather than end the series completely, executive producer James Duff, Warner Bros. Television and TNT came up with a plan to morph it into "Major Crimes," using the final episodes of "The Closer" to set up the successive drama (with the very last one lea

What our customers say about us...

Two of my friends recommended Creeks to me and I'm so glad they did. The estimator was friendly, open and honest and gave several options and the installers were courteous, on time and cleaned up the working area. Plus, the system works great. No one likes to have to buy a new AC in the middle of summer, but their price was fair and the work was good. Highly recommend! - Renay T.

From the moment you reach out to Creeks Air Conditioning and Heating you will recognize their professionalism and commitment to service are superior in the industry. The polite voice answering your call will reassure and work proficiently to accommodate answering your questions while placing your needs as their priority. From sales to installation, the representatives of Creeks Air Conditioning and Heating demonstrate their excellence in every aspect of their profession. I have called upon them on two separate occasions in two different homes (never the same unit) over the past 15 years and will continue to use them if I need HVAC repair or replacement. - DC Junior
