COVERSTORY BY ANTHONY RICHARDS The salon continues to grow within community since beginning as a mobile spa in 2020

Dogs have such a connection with their owners that it is important to the owners that they trust who they are leaving their dogs with, especially when they go to get groomed.

That is what Pawgrass Dog Spa understands and strives to cater to with each dog that comes through their doors.

"It's our mission to provide a healthy and positive grooming experience for your dog in a friendly and clean environment," owner Jennifer Teneyck said.

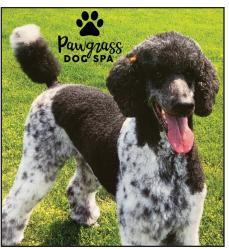

Pawgrass Dog Spa began in June 2020 with one mobile van after Teneyck and her husband John moved down to the area from New York, after having visited Ponte Vedra Beach in the past and falling in love with everything it had to offer.

Six months later, a second van was added to the mobile grooming unit, as word of Pawgrass and the services it provided began to quickly spread to the community.

After continuing to establish itself in the community, Pawgrass opened a salon and first storefront in January 2023.

There are many things that separates Pawgrass from other dog groomers, but the one that Teneyck is most proud of is their approach of personalized attention to each dog.

"Usually, you would drop them off and pick them up in a few hours, but we actually make appointments, so that not just the time it takes is shortened, but the quality of the product is better as well," Tenevck said.

There are individual spa rooms at the facility to make sure that each dog receives the treatment they need while never having to spend time in a cage during the process.

"You don't come in my salon and hear just a bunch of dogs barking," Tenevck said. "It is an atmosphere that is comfortable and stress free for everyone involved but especially for the dogs." The idea for the individual rooms for each dog is a concept Teneyck developed over the years.

"When I was in the van (mobile spa) one day, I noticed the dogs had been behaving so amazing," Teneyck said. "So, I figured why not take that concept and build 12-by-12 spa rooms that would provide them with the same experience."

The Pawgrass staff consists of four groomers, so they can style four dogs at one time.

"We have the best bunch of groomers and receptionist I could ever have asked for," Teneyck said. "Being a groomer for so many years myself, I have a lot of experience and know what to look for and what would be beneficial for a groomer's needs."

She is also a dog lover herself and understands that behind every dog that comes in is a loving owner that wants only the best for them.

"I have three dogs myself and they're my children," Teneyck said.

Pawgrass Dog Spa can take care of the grooming needs of both large and small dogs and can do a variety of styles, from show trims to pet trims.

"We sell everything we use in our boutique, so owners can know that we believe in the products we are using," Tenevck said.

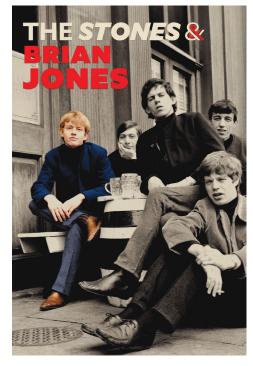

Also sold at the spa are beach collars and there is a biscuit bar with a selection of tasty dog treats.

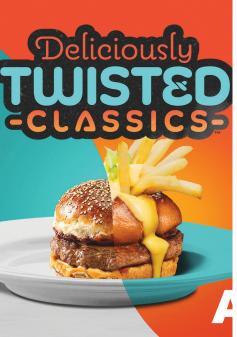

For more information about the spa go to pawgrassdogspa.com or the spa's Facebook and Instagram pages.

Everyone's favorite doctors are back. Despite departing as a series regular, Dr. Meredith Grey (Ellen Pompeo) is back at Grey Sloan Memorial to kick off this historic 20th season as a guest star, visiting the likes of Dr. Bailey (Chandra Wilson) and the also returning Arizona Robbins (Jessica Capshaw). "Grey's Anatomy" returns with exciting new episodes, beginning Thursday, March 14, on ABC. Not enough drama? Stream past episodes from the series online by visiting abc. com/shows/greys-anatomy

From "Barbie" to "Oppenheimer" To "Killers of the Flower Moon," it has been a memorable year for film. Stars gather to share accolades with their fellow art-makers, presenting this year's Best Picture, along with 23 other awards, as the "96th Academy Awards" air Sunday, March 10, on ABC, broadcast live from the the Dolby Theatre in Los Angeles. Before the show begins, find a full list of this year's nominations at oscars.org/oscars/ceremonies/2024

"Young Royals" -Season 3 (March 11)

When Prince Wilhelm (Edvin Ryding) arrives at the prestigious boarding school Hillerska he finally gets an opportunity to explore his true self and find out what kind of life he really wants. Wilhelm starts dreaming of a future filled with freedom and unconditional love far away from the royal obligations — but when he unexpectedly becomes next in line for the throne his dilemma is heightened as he has to make a choice. Love or duty. Nikita Uggla, Omar Rudberg and Malte Gardinger also star.

Beginning with the development of the atomic bomb and the dramatic proliferation of nuclear weapons in the decades after, this docuseries traces Cold War history past the collapse of the Soviet Union to the rise of Vladimir Putin and into the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Including interviews with current and former world leaders, from Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy to former United States Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice.

"Bandits" (March 13)

A quirky hustler recruits a gang of of skilled misfits to find the Snake King's treasure in the Mava Riviera, Juan Pablo Medina, Alfonso Dosal, Nicolás Furtado, Mabel Cadena, Ester Expósito, Andrés Baida and Andrea Chaparro star.

"Irish Wish" (March 15)

When the love of her life (Alexander Vlahos) gets engaged to her best-friend (Elizabeth Tan), Maddie (Lindsay Lohan) puts her feelings aside to be a bridesmaid at their wedding in Ireland. Days before the pair are set to marry, Maddie makes a spontaneous wish for true love, only to wake up as the bride-tobe. With her dream seeming to come true, Maddie soon realizes that her real soulmate is someone else entirely. This rom-com also stars Jane Seymour, Ed Speleers and Ayesha Curry.

"Palm Royale" (Apple TV+ - Mar. 20, Series Premiere)

In this true underdog story, Maxine Simmons (Kristen Wiig) endeavors to break into Palm Beach high society. As Maxine attempts to cross that impermeable line between the haves and the have-nots, the series asks the same question that still baffles us today: "How much of yourself are you willing to sacrifice to get what someone else has?" Set during the powder keg year of 1969, the show is a testament to every outsider fighting for their chance to truly belong.

"X-Men '97" - Season 1 (Disney+ - Mar. 20, Series Premiere)

This all-new series animated series revisits the iconic era of the 1990s as The X-Men, a band of mutants who use their uncanny gifts to protect a world that hates and fears them, are challenged like never before, forced to face a dangerous and unexpected new future.

Florals are on the menu for 'Spring Baking Championship'

Bees are buzzing and the birds are chirping, and that can only mean one thing. Jesse Palmer ("The Bachelor") and his buddies, judges Duff Goldman ("Duff Takes The Cake"), Kardea Brown ("Delicious Miss Brown") and Nancy Fuller ("Farmhouse Rules"), are back for another year of the "Spring Baking Championship," continuing with an all-new episode Monday, March 11, on Food Network.

"Vibrant colors, fresh fruits and bright flavors are on display as 12 of the best bakers in the country compete in challenges for the title of Spring Baking Champion and the $25,000 prize," the season's logline describes. "To survive week to week, the bakers must prove their abilities in front of expert judges Kardea Brown, Nancy Fuller and Duff Goldman. The array of springtime treats in this one-hour series is the sweetest way to kick off spring."

During the season's premiere, Palmer welcomed the competing bakers, introducing them to the championship kitchen before diving into the season's first, tropics-inspired task.

"After grabbing an ingredient and flower that's familiar to spring breakers," an episode description reads, "the competitors have two hours to incorporate them into a baked dessert." Afterwards, the bakers then conjured thoughts of relaxing vacations and sunny skies, with # bestof ...

cakes that showcased their own favorite spring experiences.

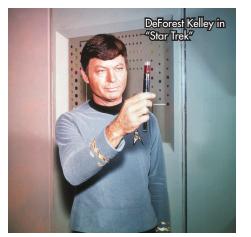

This week, however, the group embraces the change of season with an episode celebrating the upcoming spring equinox. Palmer and the judges sit back and relax, basking in the heat radiating from the kitchen as the bakers wrangle one of this year's trendiest ingredients — ube — and do their best to replicate the blossoming beauty of nature through flower-covered dome cakes filled with floral flavors, presenting desserts fit for mother nature herself.

With episodes airing weekly, there's always more to come, and the upcoming episodes are jam-packed with more seasonally appropriate fun. From shining a spotlight on awards season with "and the winner is ..." envelope-shaped pies and bubble cakes inspired by fizzy afterparty cocktails, to celebrating Earth Day with creepy-crawly cakes and ice cream-filled baked Alaska and honoring the Indian Festival of Holi with bright and colorful, spice-filled doughnuts, Palmer guides his bakers — and us — through a season of transformation, rebirth and change, with only the most delicious treats to nibble at along the way.

Plant your annuals, then plant yourself on the couch: "Spring Baking Championship" continues with all-new episodes, airing Mondays on Food Network.

James Kildare (Richard Chamberlain, "Dr. Kildare," NBC, 1961-66): After making his mark in movies and on radio, the idealistic intern became one of TV's first popular characters in the profession. Ben Casey (Vince Edwards, "Ben Casey," ABC, 1961-65): This dedicated surgeon had a visible intensity that informed his approach to cases. Leonard "Bones" McCoy (DeForest Kelley, "Star Trek," NBĆ, 1966-69): Outer space needs doctors, too, as proven by this iconic and famously testy crew member of the starship Enterprise. Marcus Welby (Robert Young, "Mar-cus Welby, M.D.," ABC, 1969-76): At a time when medical practices were modernizing, the old-fashioned approach and manner of Welby was embraced widely. Benjamin Franklin "Hawkeye" Pierce (Alan Alda, "M*A*S*H," CBS, 1972-83): Always ready with a quip, Pierce was also a skilled surgeon equipped to deal with whatever came his way during the Korean War.

"Trapper" John McIntyre (Wayne Rogers, "M*A*S*H," CBS, 1972-75 and Pernell Roberts, "Trapper John, M.D.," CBS, 1979-86): Written out of "M*A*S*H" when Rogers left the show, the character went onto his own spinoff as a San Francisco hospital's surgery chief.

R. Quincy (Jack Klugman, "Quincy, M.E," NBC, 1976-83): Though it's evidently forever a mystery what his full first name was, this medical examiner took some of the mystique out of certain conditions, some of which were dealt with on a medical drama for the first time.

Q: I've heard talk that there might be a spinoff series for the Severide character from "Chicago Fire." Is that true? – Ben Parsons, via e-mail A: There had been discussions about it, according to "Chicago Fire" executive producer Andrea Newman, but it was ultimately abandoned Thursday, March 7, 2024 | Ponte Vedra Recorder entertainment EXTRA

MARCH 14 "Invincible" - Season 2,

Part 2 (March 14) Based on the groundbreaking comic book by Robert Kirkman, Cory Walker, and Ryan Ottley, the story revolves around 18-year-old

Mark Grayson (voiced by Steven Yeun), who's just like every other guy his age - except his father is (or was) the most powerful superhero on the planet. Still reeling from Nolan's (J.K. Simmons) betrayal in Season One, Mark struggles to rebuild his life as he faces a host of new threats, all while battling his greatest fear - that he might become his father without even knowing it.

"Frida" (March 15)

An intimately raw and magical journey through the life, mind, and heart of iconic artist Frida Kahlo, her story is told through her own words for the very first time, drawn from her famed illustrated diary, revealing letters, essays and candid print interviews. Brought vividly to life by lyrical animation inspired by her unforgettable artwork, this directorial debut from acclaimed editor Carla Gutiérrez posits a striking context as to why the artist and her art — remains as powerful as ever.

"Kids Are Growing Up: A Story About a Kid Named LAROI" (Available Now)

An intimate story of Charlton "The Kid LA-ROI" Howard, who went from an unknown musician living in Australia to a teenage global superstar selling out his hometown arena in three years. Directed by Michael D. Ratner, cameras began rolling before the massive success of "STAY" and continue as Laroi navigates the pressures of rapid fame, all while gearing up for his first world tour and studio album.

Taylor Kinney will stay on "Fire"

because Severide – and his portrayer, Taylor Kinney ("Trauma") - was deemed essential to the NBC parent show. That was confirmed when the actor was absent for an extended period last season, and given how that went, "Fire" wasn't eager to lose him again. Had there been a spinoff, it would have put Severide back in the Office of Fire Investiga-tion, probing arson cases — something he has shown his gift for a number of times, and something he has in common with his deceased father Benny (who was played by the late Treat Williams, of "Chesapeake Shores"). Undoubtedly, "Fire" will continue to go back to that aspect for Severide, as it did in explaining his absence and also in incorporating it into early chapters of the current "Fire" season.

Q: I recently saw the Hallmark Channel movie "Summer in the City": and the lead actress looked very familiar. Where else would I have seen her? -Susan Case, Philadelphia, Pa.

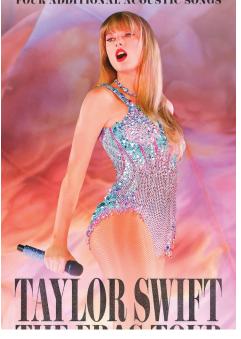

A: Julianna Guill has done quite a bit of television work over the past 15 years, but she might be known most widely for her recurring role as Nicolette Nevin's (Emily VanCamp, "Revenge") sister, Jessie, in the Fox medical drama "The Resident." She also co-starred as the title character's wife in "Joe Pickett" on Paramount+, and had multiple-episode runs in CBS's "Rush Hour," Bravo's "Girlfriend's Guide to Divorce," Netflix's "Bad Samaritans," MTV's "Underemployed," TBS's "Glory Daze" and The CW's "90210." Shows on which Guill has done single guest shots have included "The Mindy Project," "Cougar Town," "Criminal Minds," "Psych," "Community" and "How I Met Your Mother." While the home screen has been her main domain, she also has made some notable movie appearances. She was in "Captain America: Civil War" (2016), "Christmas Eve" (2015), "Crazy, Stupid, Love" (2011), "Fired Up!" (2009) and a remake of "Friday the 13th" (2009).
